

SYMPATHY FOR BLIND MAN COSTS POLICEMAN'S LIFE

Charles E. Claggett, 17
Years on the Force, Dies From Shot Fired by Sightless Negro.

TRIED TO WREST WEAPON FROM HIM

Instead of Clubbing Ex-Convict Into Submission Officer Tried to Disarm Him; Hit Three Times.

Rather than club a blind negro ex-convict into submission, Charles E. Claggett, a policeman for 17 years, tried to wrest a revolver away from him. The negro resisted and shot Claggett, who died at 12:03 a. m. today, after a blood transfusion had been performed.

His slayer, John Perry, 51 years old, also known as "Blind Brock," is a police character. He served a term in the State penitentiary from 1902 to 1905 for burglary and was committed to the city workhouse a half dozen times on lesser charges. He also has been arrested for shooting a woman, shooting a stepson and stabbing a stranger.

"Claggett was on reserve duty in the Carr Street Police Station at 7:30 o'clock last night when a negro, reported William Davis, a negro, had been stabbed at his home, 1615 North Twelfth street. When Claggett and Signal Officer John McGuire went to that address to investigate, they heard two shots in an adjoining house, 1011 North Twelfth (rear), the home of Henry Bowles, negro.

Grabs Negro's Gun.
"Entering the Bowles home, the policemen saw Perry, the blind negro, firing a revolver in the general direction of Bowles. Claggett, grasped Perry's right hand, holding the revolver, and announced, "I'm a policeman—give me that gun."

"Perry kept repeating, 'I'll kill you. I'll kill you.' apparently meaning Bowles. Claggett, not wishing to club a blind man into submission, tried to wrest the weapon from Perry, and the two slipped to the floor in the struggle. Perry, pulling the trigger, although apparently wounded, Claggett, assisted McGuire and Bowles in capturing Perry.

"Shot three times—in the abdomen, right chest and left arm—Patrolman Claggett suffered great loss of blood, and a blood transfusion was ordered. Two members of the city hospital staff volunteered and gave more than a quart of their blood to the dying policeman. They were Dr. Ralph Shav-ley, a surgeon, and Dr. Don Claven, a dentist.

"Claggett was 45 years old and resided at 2834 Louisiana avenue.
He had served in several districts, being attached to the Carr Street for the last four years.

Row Started Over Money.
"Perry, in a confession prepared by police to which he affixed his mark, said Bowles invited him to his room Sunday evening and they and two negro women had a row of whisky. Perry said $29, and asked Bowles to count it for him.
Bowles did so, but failed to return the money. Perry says, adding that he demanded its return immediately and Bowles fired twice at him.

"Perry says he took the revolver away from Bowles and then "somebody" grappled with him. He pulled the trigger, and was arrested. He asserts he did not hear any announcement of policemen coming in, and thought he fired at Bowles.

Bowles' story agrees with the police report. He says he counted Perry's money for him and Perry insisted his roll of money included seven $5 bills, not five, as Bowles had declared. Bowles then started shooting, attracting the policemen who were next door. Bowles says, and ending with Patrolman Clag-gett being shot by Perry.

Second Victim of Blind Man.
"The two women in the room can out when the shooting began. One later told police that Perry had previously pointed to a revolver in his pocket, and said, 'I'm going to be killed, but before I get killed
'I'm going to kill somebody else.'" The woman thought "somebody else" was Bowles.

Claggett is the second person killed by Perry, police say, one of his other victims, a negro, having died of bullet wounds. Perry's blindness saved him from punishment that time. He is now 51 years old and has been making a living by peddling pencils, gum and showing of the streets.

The stabbing of William Davis, which indirectly led to Claggett's death, is being investigated. Davis

POLICEMAN SHOT BY BLIND NEGRO

CHARLES E. CLAGGETT.

OPEN VERDICT IN DEATH OF WOMAN KILLED BY FALL

Mrs. Lulu May Gore, 41, Found Unconscious Outside Her Apartment by Janitor.

Mystery in the death of Mrs.
Lulu May Gore, 41, found fatally hurt by a fall down three flights of steps at her home, 6630 Clemens avenue, early yesterday, caused a Coroner's jury this morning to bring in an open verdict saying that death resulted from fractured skull and fractured hips. She died at the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium at noon yesterday without regaining consciousness.

Mrs. Gore was discovered, clad in nightgown, dressing gown and stockings, at the outside door of the apartment basement when the janitor, Floyd D. Head, arrived to build the fire at 5:30 a. m. yesterday.

T. O. Gore, husband of the woman, said she had suffered for 15 years from nervous disorders and had previously injured herself while sleep-walking. Fearful of a recurrence the daughter, Miriam, slept with her mother. "I heard my mother moving about at 1:30 a. m. yesterday," said the daughter. "and got up and brought her back to bed. She talked a while and said: 'I'm all right.
You go to sleep.'"

Neither husband or daughter was aware when the woman left the bed a second time.
A conflict of evidence developed when Policeman Beckett of University City testified that a door in her apartment three flights above where Mrs. Gore was found, was open when he arrived on the scene. Gore and his daughter testified it was closed and locked.

BOY, 15, ON TRIAL FOR FATAL STABBING YOUTH

Gilbert Brooks, 15 years old, of 1301 South Fourteenth street, went to trial in Juvenile Court today on charge of second degree murder in connection with the fatal stabbing of John Cottingham, 17, Nov. 14, 1923.

The morning was devoted to selection of a jury. If convicted, Brooks may be sentenced to the penitentiary from 10 years to life.
Cottingham was stabbed to death by Brooks when he left the dinner table to go out and stop an altercation between his younger brother, Vincent, 15, and Brooks' brother, Thomas Woodcock, 14, who was charged with the murder of her stepfather, Thomas Woodcock, in April, 1920. She had previously served time for killing her own father, Thomas Woodcock, who was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment, but later was paroled after she had said she did not kill either man but took the blame to shield her mother.

FEDERAL WARRANT ISSUED FOR ITALIAN BOMB SUSPECT

Using Mails to Defraud Is Charged Against Man Held for Explosion on "The Hill."

A Federal warrant charging Domestic Anello, 1923, Edward's street, with using the mails to defraud through the sending of "black hand" letters was issued by the District Attorney's office today. The warrant was a result of investigation into the bomb explosion which badly damaged a home in the Italian section, known as "The Hill," Thursday night, and charges him with "black handing" in connection with this and several other similar cases. He has served a Federal prison term of five years for the same offense.
Anello, who is 49 years old, and his associate, Tony Allato, 42, of 5224 A. Bischoff avenue, were arrested the day after the explosion, when residents of the neighborhood named them as men mentioned when black handing was being investigated. State warrants charging them with malicious destruction of property were issued Friday.

CHANGE IN TAXICAB RATES

Removal of the extra charges for carrying more than one passenger at a time has been announced by the Brown, Yellow, Columbia, Checker and Red Top taxicab companies. Thus, two, three, four or five passengers may ride in one cab as cheaply as one.

Managers of the cab lines expect the loss in revenues due to the extra charge being eliminated will be made up through increased use of taxicabs by groups. Brown cabs over a long period have averaged 1.5 passengers a trip.

ALOE FILES FOR MAYOR; McDaniel NOT TO MAKE RACE

Former Head of Board Fourth Republican Actually in Contest; Kiel to Decide Feb. 21.

FORMER PRISON CHAIRMAN ADMITS PART IN FRAUD

Ex-Warden and Aid at Atlanta in Conspiracy to Sell Privileges.

Louis P. Aloe, former president of the Board of Aldermen, filed notice of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Mayor with the Board of Election Commissioners today and officially opened the contest between himself and Mayor Kiel for the support of the Republican organization.

On the floor above where Aloe cast the die Mayor Kiel sat in the chair he has occupied for 12 years and gazed with affectionate reflection at the challenger on his desk.
Feb. 21 is his birthday and he will decide then whether he will face the slings and arrows of political fortune in a fight for a fourth term.
Republican being the Mayor's love for his job eventually will carry him into the primary. It is likely the field, which already includes four aspirants, will be further broadened by his entry and that of Circuit Judge J. Hugo Grimm, who will have the support of Collector Koehl.

To Divide Support.
Mayor Kiel and Aloe will divide the organization, although at the present time Aloe has the majority of the electioneers. Aloe and McDaniel, who has four who have in independent ranks. No politician cares as yet to make a choice that will commit him.

Aloe will shortly open headquarters in the Planters Building. His action in filing today comes exactly two years after the passage of the bond issue, in the preparation of which he had a material part.
His platform will be announced later.

Circuit Judge Robert W. Hall, George E. Dieckman, president of the Zoological Society, Miller, former President of the Police Board, and Aloe are the four who have filed for the Republican nomination.

While a bitter struggle wakes in the Republican ranks, the air is clearing on the Democratic side.
Former Circuit Attorney Lawrence McDaniel, who has been promi-nently mentioned as a candidate for the Democratic nomination, announced yesterday that he would withdraw in order that former Congressman William L. Igoe would have no opposition. Igoe announced his candidacy Saturday night on a platform with economy in municipal government as its base.

Byrnes Noncommittal.
"I hope that candidates who have the interests of the Democratic party at heart should withdraw," McDaniel said. "If a primary fight is evaded it will permit of intensive organization for the election and offer a definite opportunity to overcome the Republican majority. I intend to do all in my power to elect Igoe."

James W. Byrnes, Democratic nominee four years ago, will not commit himself today on his future course. It is possible he may run as an independent after the primaries are over.

Republicans do not look with favor upon the absence of a contest in Democratic ranks. They believe will offer to Democrats an incentive to vote in the Republican primary to nominate a candidate whom Igoe might defeat in the April election.

Igoe's platform caused favorable comment yesterday. It deals with 12 planks, including the Free Bridge, the widening of the bond issue, in addition to its central plank of economy.

His suggestion that the Municipal Free Legal Aid Bureau broaden its scope to aid ex-service men in presenting their claims to the Government for pension, insurance and vocational training, was not previously touched upon. He said that many former service men were not advised of the proper procedure nor of their rights and regard for the wishes of the people and the Government had provided for them.

Discussing law enforcement, he said: "Under the State law, the Governor appoints our Police Board and thereby indirectly becomes sponsor for enforcement of laws of the State and for the good order of the city. The Mayor is thus shorn of his power to enforce, as Mayor, the State laws. But as ex-officio member of the Police Board he should co-operate with other members in an administration of police affairs that will insure an efficient Police Department, free from political control and one that regard for the wishes of the people and protect our citizens in those rights of life, liberty and property, to secure which governments are instituted."

Free Bridge Problem.
He said unless the proposal to use the Free Bridge for railroad traffic included a settlement of the "arbitrary" question, it would seem proper to submit the matter to the public for decision. He pointed out that this would be only a "decent regard for the wishes of the people," expressed several times in previous elections. An administration, sympathetic with the purposes for which the bridge was built and alive to the necessity for increased terminal facilities for railroads, he said, should be able to work out a solution that would be satisfactory

ROSY PICTURE OF NEGROES IN OWN REPUBLIC PAINTED

"Great Black Cities With Skyscrapers, Beautiful Homes and Ships Sailing Seven Seas."

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Feb. 9.—Testifying today in the trial of A. E. Sartain and L. J. Fletcher, former officials of the Atlanta Federal penitentiary, and Lawrence Riehl, Columbus, O., former chaplain at the prison, declared he participated in a conspiracy with Sartain, Fletcher and Riehl to sell special privileges at the institution.

Sartain, Fletcher and Riehl are on trial on indictments charging conspiracy and bribery, while the first two were warden and deputy, respectively, at the prison.

Following the conviction of Sartain, Fletcher and Riehl, the Savannah, Ga., exposure in 1924, Hayden said, Fletcher told him some of them had offered to pay for special assignments and the money should be kept from "outsiders."

Hayden said he met Graham Baughn, one of the men convicted, in Atlanta the first part of March and on the following day Willie Haar, C. C. Tuten, and Richard Bailey joined them. At this time, he continued, it was agreed that $1500 was to be paid for "easy" assignments at the prison.

This was reported to Fletcher, Hayden testified, adding that the official then instructed him to go to Savannah to get the money. Riehl accompanied him on the trip, he asserted.

While in Savannah he and Riehl had dinner at the home of Willie Haar, C. C. Tuten, and Richard Bailey. On the return trip he himself had collected $10,500 and handed him $2100 in cash as his part of the amount.

Received Easy Assignments.
Hayden then related how he had deposited his part of the money in an Atlanta bank and later in a New York institution, Willie Haar, Fred Haar, Baughn, Sam Goldberg,
C. C. Tuten, Carl Haar and Bailey and other special assignments and other special privileges on arrival at the penitentiary, the witness said.

After Morris Sweetwood and Mannie Kessler, New York bootleggers, arrived at the prison in the latter part of 1923, Hayden testified, Fletcher asked him to see them and get $5000 for special privileges.

Remus Case Testimony Barred.
On a technical objection of the defense, the judge ruled the witness at the time could not discuss the alleged deal with Sweetwood and Kessler. He made the same ruling when an attempt was made to go into the alleged payment of money for privileges for George Remus, Cincinnati bootleg king.

When the defense took up the cross-examination, Father Hayden denied he had inveigled Riehl into making the trip to Savannah by telling him they could "get plenty to drink there." Riehl knew all about the deal to be made, the witness said.

Assistant Attorney-General Donovan, District Attorney Hagen and several other officials held a long conference with him on the night of Dec. 20, 1924, relative to the Federal investigation, the witness said, however, that he had not considered the subject of the investigation until after the trial.

Armed Negro Robber Gets $46.
A negro robber with a revolver entered the office of the Diamond Coke Co., 2121 Adams street, at 1 p.
m. today, and escaped with $46 from the cash drawer. The company's weigher, James Tanner of 2510 Washington boulevard, and two negro drivers, were forced to lie down on the floor while the robber took the cash and fled.

and bring an end "to this unhappy situation."

way problem is also advocated by Igoe.

30,000 Anti-Soviet Soldiers Suffering in Exile, Says Baroness, Here on Visit

Wife of Gen. Wrangel Seeks Funds to Maintain Tuberculosis Sanitariums Established for Veterans in Serbia.

Thirty thousand seasoned veterans of Baron Peter Wrangel's antibolshewist army, in exile in Serbia, work and await the call of Holy Russia, Baroness Wrangel, wife of the leader of the White Army, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter today.
Members of the intelligentsia in Serbia are, and young noblemen; but the toll in the mines, they build railroads and they are employed by their officers, while they wait.
Wages are small.

The reward is scarcely more than a meal a day.
Exposure, hardship and undernourishment, she said, have made their ranks a fertile field for tuberculosis. To save them the Baroness has established three tuberculosis sanitariums, and to raise money to carry on that work she is visiting in St. Louis.

Object of Visit Here.
She is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Tiffany, 11 Hortense place, where yesterday, at the bitter bread of exile, of the suffering of her husband's men. There are three of the hospitals, she said, with 120 beds all told. Each bed costs about $10 a month in maintenance. She needs $15,000 to continue her work for another year.
Some St. Louisans already have subscribed.

"Always," she said to a reporter today, "we must come to big-hearted America for our needs." Her hospital work was founded with money volunteered by an American who visited the General at Belgrade. Last year $13,000 was raised by the Baroness in Eastern cities when she paid her first visit to America. She is now visiting St.
Louis for the first time.

"Some day," she said, "Russia will need my husband's brave soldiers who are now barred from their homeland where many of them still have families. They must be sent to America to live their struggle against bolshevist tyranny.
Like most of the better Russian exiles they fled, taking only that which they had upon their backs.
We must keep up their morale. My husband finds them work. I must help to keep them in health until the time of their country's need—
and the world's."

Wears Simple Russian Dress.
The Baroness, when she arrived here Saturday evening, wore a simple, dark, and a smart little black hat in her ears were diamonds and on her hand a pearl. But the coat and what race would more rapidly dispatch its battleships to aid its old friends?"

Sheriff, of course, spoke for the Black Cross Steamship project.
There are a few stockholders in St. Louis. He did not mention the Black Star line, its predecessor, which foundered in bankruptcy and resulted in Garvey's trial and conviction. No St. Louis negro is known to have bought stock in it.
The 3500 St. Louis members of the organization pay $1 each January and 35 cents a month, and there are frequent calls for contributions. Yesterday, for instance, was "Dollar Day," meaning that each negro was expected to contribute at least $1 to the cause. Since the U. N. I. A. was formed six years ago, by Garvey, the leaders claim its membership has grown to 4-000,000 in the United States.

SERIOUSLY IN 30-FOOT FALL
William Williams, 36 years old,
of 6206 West Park avenue, a window washer, was injured seriously today when he lost his balance and fell 30 feet from a second-floor window of the Quick Meal Store and Range Co., at 825 Chouteau
avenue.

He suffered fractures of both feet and internal injuries.

Six Injured by Powder Blast.
By the Associated Press.
MUSKOGEE, Ok., Feb. 9.—Six members of the family of W. T.
Phillips, who operates a strip mine five miles west of here, were burned, severely, perhaps fatally, when a keg of powder exploded in their tent home yesterday.

and the world's."

There are a few stockholders in St. Louis. He did not mention the Black Star line, its predecessor,
which foundered in bankruptcy and
resulted in Garvey's trial and conviction. No St. Louis negro is known to have bought stock in it.
The 3500 St. Louis members of the organization pay $1 each January
and 35 cents a month, and there
are frequent calls for contribu-

"Dollar Day," meaning that each
negro was expected to contribute
at least $1 to the cause. Since the U. N. I. A. was formed six years ago, by Garvey, the leaders claim
its membership has grown to 4-000,000 in the United States.

SERIOUSLY IN 30-FOOT FALL
William Williams, 36 years old,
of 6206 West Park avenue, a window washer, was injured seriously
today when he lost his balance and
fell 30 feet from a second-floor
window of the Quick Meal Store
avenue.

He suffered fractures of both
feet and internal injuries.

burned, severely, perhaps fatally,
when a keg of powder exploded in

AUTO STRIKES CROWD AT SCENE OF A CRASH

Three Persons Injured When Machine Is Driven Into Mass of Spectators.

A collision between two automobiles, in which one car was overturned, in front of 7223 South Broadway, shortly last midnight, was followed by a second crash, involving a third car, which was driven into the mass of spectators, seriously injuring two persons.

A sedan, driven by Carl J. Pelete, 21, 3817 Fairview avenue, and containing two other men, attempted to pass a Ford coupe, driven by Robert Fox of 2841, Mendenhall avenue, and containing also Carl Herwig, 1102 South Thirtieth street, and Miss Viola Maurer, 21, 616 South Broadway, which was coming in the opposite direction.
Fox's car was overturned, and Herwig and Pelete were seriously injured and were endeavoring to extricate Miss Maurer from the overturned car, when an automobile driven by John Breier, 21, 110 Dresden avenue, crashed into the crowd.

Alexien Brothers' Home.
Miss Mary Norman, 18, of 110 Indiana avenue, was found to have suffered a fractured left leg and concussion of the brain; Lester DeJournette, 25, 7274 South Broadway, fractured right arm and numerous cuts; and Miss Adele Taube, 15, 5410 Virginia avenue, lacerations on the left leg.
The three drivers were arrested.

James Bond, 39 years old, of 1428 South Broadway, was run down by a motorcar as he alighted from a south-bound Broadway street car, at Broadway and Marshall street, last night. He suffered fractured ribs and internal injuries.
Mrs. Barbara Ott, 40, of 410 Fair avenue, suffered a fractured arm when knocked down by a taxicab when she crossed Fair avenue near Fair avenue.

Nicholas Loved by Soldiers.
"As for Nicholas, they love him.
He lives in a little French village, quietly, with dignity. We do not know if his thoughts turn to the throne. Certainly he has made no move to claim it. His war record is admirable. His soldiers regard him as a little father."

"Cyril? Well, he is making it hard for all of us. With his court and retinue who knows how long the European governments, who now give us shelter will permit us to stay on? Who knows how soon the day will come when we will have none of us at all?"

"BEAR-HUNTING" BOYS FINDS WIFE DEAD, GAS HELD FOR AUTO THEFT HEATER WIDE OPEN

Husband Tells Police of Quarrel Over Dinner and Going to Movies.

Mrs. Helen Tuft, 33 years old, of 1151A Hamilton avenue, was dead of gas poisoning when her husband, Otto A. Tuft, who had taken their two little children with him, returned from a motion picture show last night.

Her death had been preceded by a family quarrel. Loath to believe it suicide, Tuft told police about their differences.

"She wanted to go out for supper," he said. "I didn't. I said 'We've got everything in the house. We'll eat here.' After supper I wanted to go to a picture show and take the babies. She wouldn't go. So we went anyway. And then this happened."

A Coroner's jury at the inquest this morning returned a verdict of suicide. Mrs. Grace Benjamin, 5322 Hartman place, a friend of Mrs. Tuft, told the jury that Mrs. Tuft "said her husband just turned her. She said she couldn't stand it any longer and would have to kill either him or herself. 'I have got no one but you to tell me what to do,' she said."

Tuft at the inquest said that quarrels had been frequent during their seven years of married life. Tuft with the children, Walter, aged 6, and Margaret, aged 4, returned home from the school where he was full of gas, which seemed to come from the bathroom. His wife did not answer his calls and he investigated. He found her sitting in her nightgown on the bathroom floor. By her side was an unlighted gas heater, wide open. He called her, and she came. He saw a note pinned to the door of the bedroom, which was summoned, said Mrs. Tuft had been dead some time.

Negro Held for Attacking Girl, 9.

HELENA, Ark., Feb. 9.—Ollie Slay, 18 years old, a negro, accused of attacking a 9-year-old girl in Steele, Mo., in December, 1924, was arrested here yesterday and will be returned to Steele. A farmer for whom Slay was working recognized the negro through a description published in a newspaper and informed county officers.

Scene of Soviet Parliament Shifted.
MOSCOW, Feb. 9.—The Government has decided to hold the third session of the Russian Federal Parliament in Tiflis beginning March 1. This is in fulfillment of the promise of the Government to hold the parliamentary sessions in the various capitals of the soviet allied republics. The first and second session of Parliament last year were to have been held at Tiflis but they had to be canceled owing to the Georgian rising. Questions of internal and foreign policies and the present situation in the Caucasian States will be discussed.

BETTER VIEW FOR DINERS OF DANCERS' ANKLES PROPOSED

New Paris Shoe Styles So Elaborate Casino Plans Elevated Floor in Dining Room.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Feb. 9.—Fantastic-looking shoes are being made by the fashionable bootmakers and the prices will be high. Not only are rich brocades and carved and colored leathers and all sorts of imitation jewels to be used, but real seed pearls are prescribed for those who would be distinctive. The custom-shoemakers are also trying out a symmetrical design, in which one side of the shoe is cut very low while the other side is shaped differently, with a strap covering only one side. There also are many elaborate cut-out designs, the straps always being in contrasting colors. Some idea of what Parisian shoe houses expect of fashionable women is seen in the advertising of one of the chain-store firms, which says that the well-dressed woman should have at least 12 pairs of slippers and shoes. Tassels, bows and even large artificial flowers are offered as decorations to vary the usual cut steel and jeweled buckles, while gem-studded heels add to the glory of the newest footwear. This richness in shoe styles has prompted one Riviera Casino to plan an elevated dancing floor in the center of the dining room so that the ankles of the dancers will be on the level with diners' eyes.

35 Rifles Killed Taking Raisuli.
By the Associated Press.
TETUAN, Morocco, Feb. 9.—Details of the attack of the Rifian tribesmen against the Yebalas, which culminated in the capture of the bandit leader Raisuli at Tazart a week ago, are being brought to this city through native channels, indicating that 35 Rifians were killed and many wounded before the Yebalas surrendered. The Rifians looted Tazart, Raisuli's stronghold, and found many treasures which the bandit chief had accumulated during his many years of conquest in Morocco.

Moving Pictures at Sunday School.
Moving pictures of St. John's Methodist Sunday School were shown yesterday to the school. The machine was the gift of Col. Paul Brown, and the first picture, entitled, "St. John's at Work," showed the different Sunday school classes and affiliated organizations. The largest class is the Triangle Class, of which G. A. Radford is teacher. The second picture, to be shown next Sunday morning, represents the services in the church auditorium.

Annual Sale of Dresses
Offers Spring Frocks at $23

This is an event of greatest importance to the woman seeking the lovely and unusual in Spring Frocks at an attractively moderate price. A marvelous assortment of Frocks was specially purchased for this sale which provides values that will instantly be recognized as extraordinary. Dresses for street, business, afternoon and evening are presented in that smartness and individuality of styling that makes complete appeal. Fabrics of newest Spring texture, and all the approved effects and colors are smartly interpreted in this group and offered at a surprisingly advantageous price—in sizes ranging from 34 to 52½.

The February Sale of Laces Features Many Unusual Values

Women who appreciate the beauty of Laces have learned to look forward to the February Sale as a time for purchasing in quantities sufficient for a season's needs—so exceptional are the values. In addition to special prices on real Laces, this sale presents many new creations in Laces, as sponsored by leading fashion designers—all at very low prices. For instance, a group at $3.98 a yard includes 36-inch Laces in many unusual designs, readily suggestive of smart Spring frocks. And there are embroidered bands and edges, wash Laces of popular kinds, embroidery flouncing for baby dresses—in fact, every popular demand is met at a saving.

The February Sale of Chinaware

Complete stocks, attractive patterns, tremendous savings distinguish this sale. Some extraordinary values will be discovered in the open-stock patterns—there is an open-stock service of 100 pieces, in first quality semi-porcelain, as low as $16.95! And a real Japanese china service, 100 pieces, enough for twelve persons, at $37.95. But this sale is too comprehensive to attempt to list all the unusual values —a visit to the Fifth Floor will tell you the

ADAM HENRY JONES' TRIAL INDEFINITELY CONTINUED

Action Taken at Request of Defendant. Whose Attorneys Could Not Be Present.

Trial of Adam Henry Jones, former prosecuting attorney of St. Louis County, on four indictments was indefinitely postponed today by Circuit Judge McKinnney at Jones' request. Jones, writing his attorney, William Raser, could not be present. Judge McKinnney said he would try to have the case called again this term, but set no definite date.

Two of the indictments charge Jones with entering into a corrupt agreement to dismiss indictments against Charles Silver, charged with assault to kill and robbery, and two more indictments charge Jones with corrupt agreements to dismiss indictments against Charles Halloran and James Carcino, charged with liquor law violations.

Jones told reporters he intends to file motions to quash the three indictments against him growing out of the Silvers and Carcino cases, and is willing to stand trial on the fourth indictment, resulting from the Halloran case. Special Prosecutor Robert Rosenthal said the State was ready to start the trials today, and will oppose efforts to quash the indictments.

CENTRAL TRADES INDORSES FIREMEN'S MOVE FOR MORE PAY

Labor Body Will Co-Operate in Effort to Get Initiative Proposal on Ballot.

The Central Trades and Labor Union yesterday indorsed the movement of the St. Louis city firemen to get a $25 a month increase in pay by resorting to the initiative. After hearing an address by M. J. Mulvey, secretary of the firemen's union, in which he outlined the firemen's position, the central organization adopted a resolution pledging aid in the circulation of petitions to get the proposition on the April 7 ballot.

Mulvey asserted that St. Louis, paying its common firemen $140 a month, ranks thirty-fifth among the cities of the United States. New York City pays its fire fighters $208 a month, he pointed out; Chicago, $182; Detroit, $206; Los Angeles, $170; Washington, $170 and San Francisco $179. Following the recent refusal of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to approve the proposed increase, the firemen are now circulating initiative petitions.

CHAPLIN AND BRIDE MAKE UP Mother-in-Law of Comedian Leaves His Mansion for Own

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 9.—If there ever was any occasion for negotiations between attorneys of Charlie Chaplin and those of his wife, formerly Lita Gray of the movies, it exists no longer, and the screen comedian and his 16-year-old bride have decided "not to have anything more to do with lawyers," the Los Angeles Times today quotes Mrs. Lillian Spicer, the bride's mother, as saying.

Mrs. Spicer's statement was made in connection with her departure from the Chaplin mansion in Beverly Hills, where she had been living since her daughter's marriage, to a house which has taken for herself in Hollywood. She declared that recently reported negotiations purporting to involve a financial

Make Your Investment in Furniture Count to the Utmost—Particularly Advantageous Would Be Choice on

Tuesday in the February Furniture Sale

This annual event at St. Louis' Dominant Store fully deserves the importance it has gained in this community—the advantages it affords to home-makers are truly remarkable. Here are a few of the groups offered—and in addition to the savings they provide, deferred payments may be arranged for your convenience in purchasing—and future delivery may be specified if desired.

$600 Bedroom Suites

Offered in This Event at.....

The Louis XVI period—so well adapted for modern bedrooms, is gracefully expressed in these Suites, and they embody the most careful workmanship and finish in every detail. Bow-end bed, 50-inch dresser, chiffonette and vanity—in dull walnut, dustproof throughout. Any of the pieces may be obtained separately, if the whole Suite cannot be used.

Bedroom Suites

$295

A new design produced by a renowned manufacturer of "quality" furniture. Four beautiful pieces—bow-end bed, 50-inch dresser, wardrobe and vanity—with 5-ply walnut tops, sides and ends and mahogany drawer linings.

Bedroom

$225

Attractive Louis XVI Suites, carefully constructed for the most satisfactory service. Four pieces—finished in dull walnut: bow-end bed, 48-inch dresser, wardrobe and vanity—dust-proof throughout, and with mahogany drawer linings.

$400 Dining-Room Suites

Offered in This Event at.....

Picture the charm and hospitality of your dining room furnished with one of these Suites—of Jacobean period style, correct in every detail. At $295 the ten pieces represent an opportunity of unusual importance. 72-inch buffet, china cabinet, oblong and serving tables, five chairs and an armchair—in dull walnut with oak interiors. Pieces obtainable separately.

Dining-Room
Suites

$225

These Suites introduce a new and distinctive period—Gothic—finished in beautifully grained walnut. Includes 66-inch buffet, china cabinet, oblong table, five chairs and an armchair. Pieces obtainable separately.

Three-Piece
Suites

$245

A value that has aroused much enthusiasm. Living-room Suites of the most popular and comfortable modern type—davenport, chair and wing chair—large and well designed. With carved bases and upholstery of plain or figured mohair.

Mohair
Suites

Davenport and chair compose these Suites—in a design that is "different"—and decidedly distinctive; they are splendidly built. With carved bases, moss and hair fillings and reversible mohair and tapestry cushions. Well constructed.

$200 Velour Suites

Offered at..... $155

The good points of these Suites are many, indeed—especially in view of the extremely moderate price. They include davenport, chair and rocker—of full web construction, and upholstered in taupe or blue velour. Loose cushions on all three pieces.

High-Back
Chairs

$55

A stately and comfortable type of Chair, especially appropriate for hallways or dining rooms; well built, finished in dull walnut, and upholstered in beautiful, richly colored tapestry. Several styles in the group, providing unusually advantageous choice.

Coxwell
Chairs

$45

Not often are Chairs of this approved and ideally comfortable style offered at such an emphatic saving! They are built to last many years—with upholstery of durable mohair or tapestry and loose cushions. Chairs of a type well suited to modern homes.

Secretary
Desks

$50 Value

$37.50

Dignified simplicity is the keynote of the design of these Secretaries—their convenience will be appreciated in many living rooms or libraries. Combination desk and bookcase, three drawers. Dark mahogany finish—and excellent workmanship. Seventh Floor

GALLIGAN'S VIEW OF PEACE AGREEMENT

Williamson County Sheriff, in East St. Louis, Says It Is "a 60-Day Vacation."

"A vacation for 60 days" is Sheriff George Galligan's interpretation of the signed agreement under which he is to leave Williamson County. Galligan, in East St.
Louis yesterday, gave out a statement saying that Gov. Small "earnestly requested" him to take a 60 days' vacation, to see if the difficulties at Herrin would quiet down, and that he agreed, on the express understanding that his office deputy, Randall Parks, should act as Sheriff.

The terms of the agreement, as signed by Galligan and the County Board members at Springfield Thursday, say nothing about a 60-day period. The agreement says, as to Galligan:
"He shall leave the county of Williamson without unnecessary delay and remain without said county until and unless, after conferences with the Governor of the State of Illinois, it is agreed that conditions are such as to permit his return."

"I intend to remain in close touch with affairs in Williamson County during the entire time," the Sheriff said. He called attention to the provision of the agreement for disarming the men in Herrin who now carry revolvers on permits issued by Justices. This, he said, was a vindication of "my fight for the enforcement of law through the duly constituted authorities."

LIQUOR USE CAUSES 9 PCT. OF GEORGIA CRIME, JUDGE SAYS
Volstead Act Violations Bring "Degradation and Shame" to State, Declares Jurist.

By the Associated Press.
MACON, Ga., Feb. 8.—Nine percent of the crimes committed in Georgia are attributable to violations of the prohibition law, and the statute is just as flagrantly disregarded by church members as other people, Judge Ogden Persons of Flint Circuit Court told a Sunday school class here. Judge Persons said that violation of the Volstead act is responsible for the reputation for lawlessness and for the "degradation and shame" that have been visited upon Georgia.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoons-fuls. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold fading away like a dream, within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for children as well as adults. Quickest relief for ear-rache and children's choking up at night.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified croscote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and the germ.

Of all known drugs, croscote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to croscote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the croscote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germ that leads to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist, Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Don't Let That Cold
Turn Into "Flu"

Rub on Good Old Musterole. That cold may turn into "Flu." Grippe or even worse, pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once.

Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are usually congested. Musterole made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the most potent plaster, does the work without blistering. Just rub it on the inflamed parts. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole, 35c and 65c, in jars and tubes.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards' discovered the formula, after seventeen years of practice, when his patients afflicted with chronic constipation, with the attendant bad breath, were cured by the use of olive oil. He found that the olive oil, taken once or twice every night for a week and note the effect. 35c and 65c.

15 MORE DOCTORS
DIPLOMA INQUIRY

Twelve of This Number Are St. Louisans, Most of Them Practicing Here —
One a Woman.

Pursuing its investigation of doctors licensed in Missouri who are alleged to have obtained their medical graduation diplomas or licenses by fraud or political influence, the Missouri State Board of Health today issued citations for 15 more practitioners. In addition to the 45 already cited, to appear before the State Board in St. Louis March 9 and show cause why their licenses should not be revoked.

Twelve of the 15 are St. Louisans and most of them are practicing medicine in this city. One is a woman, Dr. Clara W. McGrew, 928 North Grand boulevard. Those outside St. Louis are practitioners in Jefferson City, Desloge, Mo., and Kansas City.

Total of 60 Cited. The citations today bring the number of doctors to be haled before the board to 60. Among the 45 already named is Dr. Waldo Briggs, dean of the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons, Jefferson avenue and Gamble street, whose school has been the storm center of the State Board's fight to rid the profession of quacks. Dr. Briggs is a member of and contributor to the St. Louis Medical Society and also holds membership in the Missouri State Medical Association and the American Medical Association. His school is graded as a class C institution.

As has been told, the charge in the citation for Dr. Briggs is unprofessional conduct and alleged fraudulent issue by his school of medical graduation diplomas.

The State Board, of which Dr. Emmett P. North is president, and Dr. James Stewart, medical director for the State of Missouri, secretary, will sit as a trial body on the charges against these doctors in the Municipal Courts Building, and each of the accused will be required under the citations to appear in person, make answer and submit to questioning. Evidence thus adduced will be considered by the board, first as a basis for revoking licenses and then for presentation to the grand jury for criminal prosecutions, should the evidence warrant further procedure.

Year of Investigation. Members of the board have stated that they have obtained a wealth of evidence in most of the cases cited, which was gathered over a period of more than a year of investigation, on which to base the charges in the citations, and it was stated by Dr. North that an appalling condition in the graduation and licensure of some of the physicians will be disclosed.

The list of 15 additional doctors to be cited, which was made public today, is as follows: St. Louis—Clara W. McGrew, Edward William Hamptill, Loren A. Glasco, Joseph Albert Grosskrautz, A. M. Ecklund, Christian E. Gurslee, Commodore Edward Bennett, Oscar R. Bullard, Victor H. Bergman, John Ruschman, Hugo L. Roeppler, Clarence J. Bertaut. Kansas City—Roland O. Bagby, Desloge—Charles L. Hyatt. Jefferson City—William Buell Dallas.

Dr. Stewart, secretary of the board, has been in St. Louis since Friday conferring with Dr. North and pursuing his investigation of local conditions. While he would not say that still others would be cited, it is likely that the inquiry will so result.

PARTIAL ECLIPSE OF MOON NOT DISCERNIBLE HERE

Persons in Eastern Part of United States Had Opportunity to Observe Seven-Tenths Obscuration.

St. Louis eclipse fans who looked for the earth's shadow on the moon late yesterday afternoon met with disappointment, for the clouds that were rapidly covering the sky would have made it impossible to see an earth shadow even if there had been one there, and there wasn't, anyway, so far as St. Louis was concerned. The moon was out of eclipse by 5:15 p. m. and it didn't rise until 5:30.

According to the Rev. Father James J. Shannon, professor of astronomy at St. Louis University, persons living in the Eastern part of the United States had an opportunity, if the clouds permitted, to see a seven-tenths eclipse, a shadow almost as great as that seen over the sun on Jan. 24. But the shadow grew smaller as the moon rose higher. Even by the time it appeared to Eastern Illinois all but about one-tenth of its surface was unveiled.

Roadhouse Customers Held Up.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—A dozen men and women, one of them a Deputy Sheriff who was stripped of his war and revolver, were held up in a roadhouse, the Forest Gardens, near Lansing, Ill., early today, and robbed of $500 and some jewelry by six well-dressed young men. The robbers, all armed, invaded the place and herded the victims into a check room, where the valuables were taken.

Bureau to Fight Stock Frauds.
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Creation of a special department of the New York Stock Exchange to investigate attempted frauds through worthless securities was announced by President E. H. H. Simmons, who stated that the services of the bureau would be available, without cost, to any person in the United States.ADVERTISEMENT BE QUICK TO STOP THAT COLD

If you act immediately you can stop nine colds in ten. Millions do it with hot lemonade. But they "get" them at the start—when they first suspect a cold. And colds always warn you so you have the chance.

Take the drink at the first sign, then cover warm in bed. All traces in the morning usually have disappeared. Try it and you too will always use this method. Get a dozen lemons now, to be prepared.

Just squeeze the juice of a lemon in a glass or cup of hot water. The effectiveness of hot lemonade is due to more than its heat. Add sugar if you wish.

Ask for California lemons, the tart, juicy, practically seedless kind. They make the most effective lemonade for colds.—Adv.

$11,000 DAMAGE IN FIRE AT 2130-36 MARKET STREET

Blaze of Undetermined Origin Sweeps Two-Story Brick Building.

A three-alarm fire, originating in the first floor of a two-story brick building at 2130-36 Market street, at 11:30 last night, caused an estimated damage of $11,000 to the building and contents.

The first floor is occupied by stores and the second floor consists of apartments occupied by negroes. A clothing store at 2134 Market, owned by E. J. Matter, was damaged $2500. There was the same damage to the Fit-Rite Shoe Store, at 2132, owned by Henry Feldman. A shooting gallery, at 2130, operated by L. M. Sternout, suffered $100 damage, and the apartment of Hallie Turner, a negro, 2136A, had a damage of $1500. Damage to the building is estimated at $5000.

Origin of the fire has not been determined.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Give Them Haley's
Magnesia-Oil

Mothers, there's an easy way now to correct that sour stomach, and to relieve the effect of something that has "disagreed" with the youngsters. Simply give them a teaspoonful or more of Haley's Magnesia-Oil.

It has no oily taste—can be mixed with milk and given children without their knowledge—and it's harmless. A big dose for emergencies is perfectly safe and promptly effective. There is no gripping or other unpleasant effect. Haley's Magnesia-Oil is simply milk of magnesia and mineral oil combined.

The oil carries the magnesia straight to the lower bowel, where the milk of magnesia neutralizes the acids and the mineral oil lubricates and aids nature quickly to remove the cause of the trouble, with work together.

If your druggist can't supply Haley's Magnesia-Oil, we will mail a bottle postpaid on receipt of five cents. Large family size, 50c. The Haley M-O Company, Indianapolis, Ind.

EVIDENCE ST. LOUIS GANGSTERS SENT DRUGS TO PRISON

Statement by Federal Agent Investigating Sale of Narcotics to Convicts at Jefferson City.

EX-GUARD'S BOND SET AT $12,500

Ed Blaser, Woman and Another Man Arraigned—Bond for Latter Two Is $10,000 Each.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 9.—Ed Blaser, former guard at the State penitentiary who was arrested here by Federal narcotic agents who have been investigating the smuggling of narcotics into the penitentiary, today was arraigned before United States Commissioner Fromme and his bond fixed at $12,500. His preliminary hearing was set for Saturday. Elizabeth King, Blaser's housekeeper, and Walter Wells, an employee, who also were arrested by the Federal agents in a raid on Blaser's roadhouse near Jefferson City, were arraigned and their bonds fixed at $10,000 each.

No evidence was submitted when Blaser was arraigned, but Federal Agent W. O. McDonald stated charges of possessing and selling narcotics would be lodged against Blaser. He also stated the Government officers had evidence tending to connect Blaser with the method by which two Federal prisoners escaped from the Cole County jail last spring. They were serving terms on conviction of narcotic charges.

Drugs From St. Louis.

McDonald further stated that the evidence collected by the investigators indicated that the narcotic supply coming into Jefferson City had been obtained from St. Louis gangsters. He said suspected narcotic runners had been trailed into St. Louis, and their movements there watched, but declined to name the St. Louis sources of the drugs pending further investigation.
McDonald and other Federal agents who have been at work on the investigation, including a woman operative, left Jefferson City today, but are to return in a few days to continue the investigation. It was stated further arrests are expected in connection with the prison inquiry.

The Federal agents raided Blaser's roadhouse Saturday night and reported finding a quantity of narcotics and liquor.

10,000 Doses Seized in 1924.

United States District Attorney Madison of Kansas City, Chief Narcotic Agent Forrer and other officers recently held a conference with members of the new State Penal Board appointed by Gov.
Baker, on methods of further cutting down the drug traffic. Prior to the appointment of the new board, the Federal operatives had been closely co-operating with the former Penal Board in the investigation.

Former Warden Crawford, before his retirement last month, destroyed between 10,000 and 12,000 "shots" of morphine that had been confiscated from convicts during the last 18 or 20 months. Prior to 1922, prison officials confiscated enough morphine inside the prison in a single year to make approximately 100,000 "shots" of the drug sold under cover in the prison by convict drug peddlers.

STERLING P. CROWDER, 58, FOUND DEAD IN HIS HOME

Body of Maplewood Contractor Discovered by Bedside—Demise Laid to Heart Attack

Sterling P. Crowder, 58, a contractor, was found dead at his bedside in his home, 3611 Commonwealth avenue, Maplewood, by his nephew, Joel Crowder, at 8:30 a. m. today. Death, physicians said, was due to a heart attack and probably had occurred 24 hours before.
Crowder was clad in his night-clothes and lay as though he had fallen face down while attempting to arise.

He was unmarried and lived alone. For many years he had been a contracting builder in Maplewood, and had constructed most of the residences in Greenwood, a subdivision of that suburb.

Negro Youth Kills White Boy.

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Roy Gillus, 16-year-old negro youth, confessed to police that he had clubbed to death Edward Schmidt, his 17-year-old white companion, yesterday, and dragged the body out on the ice at the edge of the lake, where it was found by boys playing along the beach. The two youths were to have been arraigned in three juvenile court today under a charge of robbing a grocery. Gillus told police Schmidt had been arrested first and implicated him, which was the reason for the killing. Gillus told the police he would rather face a murder charge than one of robbery.

Gray Summit Hopes to Get New Shaw's Garden

Possible Site For Its Location Near Town in Franklin County Said to Have Been Inspected.

Gray Summit, which has hitherto rejoiced in the dandelion and other common flowers that bloom in the spring, is hoping for higher things. Orchids are not beyond its dreams, since it has become known that representatives of Shaw's Garden have looked over property in that vicinity, as a possible site for the new garden.

Gray Summit (postoffice spelling—the railroad spells it Gray's) is 27½ miles west of the present location of the Missouri Botanical Garden. It is in Franklin County, near the Meramec River and not far from the Missouri River. The Missouri Pacific has a station there. A concrete highway runs to the border of St. Louis County, and is to be extended in the direction of Gray Summit.

"It is aimed to acquire 1200 acres of land near Gray Summit, facing the Meramec," says the latest issue of the Citizen, published in Washington, the nearest large town. "Such an enterprise will make the town famous. More families would be brought there, and women would be needed to lay out the gardens and build hot houses, etc. It would bring many flower lovers to Gray Summit annually. The deal, if it materializes, will put Gray Summit on the map and make it the garden spot of Missouri."

Dr. George T. Moore, superintendent of the Garden, said last night that quite a number of locations had been inspected. He did not deny that one of them was near Gray Summit, but said it would be several weeks at least before any decision is announced. The trustees of the Garden made known last year their decision to obtain an out-of-town site for a supplementary garden. Later it was announced that the new location may eventually contain the main and only garden. City smoke, blighting plants, is the chief reason for the prospective removal.

NOT TOLD OF DISMISSAL, SAYS RABBI'S ACCUSER

J. H. Kaplanovitch Doesn't Know Anything About Reports He Was "Fired" as Dry Agent.

J. H. Kaplanovitch isn't sure about anything. He has not been notified of his dismissal as a Federal prohibition agent, he said today at his home, 2925 Wash. street, and he doesn't know anything about reports to the effect that his expense accounts were padded. He read in the newspapers Saturday that Assistant Prohibition Commissioner Jones, in Washington, said he was "fired," but that is all he knows about it.

"So far as I know, I am still a general prohibition agent," said Kaplanovitch, who won his spurs in 1922 when he turned Government informer against his old friend, Rabbi Grodski, who is charged with bootlegging sacramental wine. "I worked Friday and I was in the office Saturday. Nobody said anything about my dismissal, and I expect to go to the office as usual today."

Both Commissioner Jones and James Dillon, local head of the prohibition forces, have announced Kaplanovitch's dismissal. Reminded of this fact, Kaplanovitch insisted he knew nothing about it, but indicated he would testify against Rabbi Grodski at his trial March 1 with the same vigor he showed in a recent preliminary hearing. On that occasion he declared he was rewarded with a job as dry agent after he had trapped the Rabbi into selling him champagne and wine.

ASSISTANT TO PRESIDENT OF CHICAGO U. SPEAKS HERE

Dr. Nathaniel Butler, author, former college president and now assistant to the president of the University of Chicago, spoke Saturday night in behalf of his school's endowment fund before St. Louis alumni of the Chicago University, at Coronado Hotel.

Dr. Butler pointed particularly to the school's new system of selecting students with an eye to personality as well as scholarship. Under the Chicago scheme, he said, close attention is still paid to ranks and grades from the preparatory school, but in addition, questionnaires are sent to the applicant's school to determine his morals, disposition, capacity for leadership or responsibility, his favorite occupation and what achievement, if any, he is particularly proud of. The aim of the scheme, he said, is to select the students who really belong in college.

Dr. Butler's talk concluded a tour to the Pacific Coast begun Jan. 1 in the interest of a $17,500,000 increase in his school's endowment.

Eye Institute Subscriptions. By the Associated Press. BALTIMORE, Feb. 9.—Subscriptions totaling $178,270 to be applied to the establishment of the Wilmer Institute for Research, Study and Treatment of Diseases of the Eye at Johns Hopkins University were announced Sunday. Members of the Half-Century Committee explained that the $2,000,000 fund for establishment of the eye institute must be completed this week if the university is to get the benefit of the General Education Board's gift and others offered on the condition that the entire amount be subscribed. The balance now to be raised is $471,000.

Secretary of Illinois Association Al-

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—A picture of deserted farms, idle factories and exorbitant living costs, "if some of the laws introduced in the Illinois General Assembly and other states were passed," was drawn by John M. Glenn, secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association in an address prepared for delivery before the legislative round table at the City Club today.
Glenn asserted it was his belief that a State police force could have prevented the bloodshed at Herrin during the last few years. He voiced opposition to the proposed child labor amendment to the national constitution.
Legislative needs favored by the manufacturers, Glenn said, include:
"Credit unions for promotion of thrift among employees and their protection against loan sharks; lower taxes with a State budget system modeled on Federal lines; more permanent highways of safe width, especially leading out of large cities; active work on the lake-to-gulf waterway, and a State aviation commission that will encourage the manufacture of airplanes."

PARIS, Feb. 9.—Withdrawal of the United States, it is said here, will not wreck the opium conference at Geneva. Advance toward solution of the narcotics problem is still expected.
"American collaboration is ended, that is all," comments L'Information. "It was obvious it would finish that way. It is only astonishing that it took three months to realize it."
"Representative Porter went to Geneva with imperative instructions from Congress to suppress completely all traffic in narcotics except for medical and scientific uses."
"Those who have followed the League of Nations for five years know it is impossible to attain in a jump this humane, pacific ideal and destroy as by enchantment opposing interests which are at the base of the divergent views."
"Many times the league upset its machinery to get American support.
It is useless while the Senate does not believe the new world does not need to mix in the affairs of the old."
"The opium conference contin-agreement, but that is better than nothing. The best way to show the United States why it is worth while belonging to the league is to prove

Acid Stomach
See how quickly this new method corrects it—
THIS offers you a test that will throw a new light on some of your common daily ailments and discomforts.
If you go about "half sick," have gas after eating, suffer with dull headaches, have sour stomach, nausea, etc.—you are urged to use the coupon below. Then to note what an amazing difference can be made in the way you feel.
Lack of ACID balance—that's the trouble
You must be in balance. Almost 80% of headaches, biliousness and stomach discomforts are now traced to an acid condition of the stomach and to bowel disorders. Conditions now easily relieved.
Lack of acid balance in your stomach means an abnormal acid condition from food fermentation which fosters scores of stomach and systemic disorders. You must re-establish acid balance. Old-time methods, purges, cathartics, etc., took only bowel evacuation into account. And that is where they failed.
Now new methods of correction have been found. In scores of tests, results have been remarkable.
This new method is based on magnesia. On a mintrated form that multiplies the effectiveness of old-time milk of magnesia, which failed in several important ways.
MINTRATED CREAM OF MAGNESIA
For sale at all drug stores.

What it is
It is called Mintrated Cream of Magnesia. It acts in many ways, yet at once.
It acts to neutralize excessive stomach acids. It aids in re-establishing correct acid balance.
It combats absorption into the blood of toxic poisons from the intestinal tract which keep people below normal and constantly ailing.
It relieves constipation of long standing. Relieves indigestion quickly. Relieves those black spots before your eyes; clears your bowels of their poisons and helps to condition the whole intestinal tract.
The test is yours
In justice to yourself and yours, make the test at our expense. Results will be a revelation.
Just take a teaspoonful after meals and at night-time for a day or two. What you find will cause you to thank us many times for this test.

LINCOLN SAVINGS AND LOAN BOOKS DEMANDED IN SUIT

Depositions Also to Be Taken in Action Brought by Certificate Holder in Defunct Housing Trust.

CASE SET FOR TRIAL THIS MONTH

Is in Effect Effort to Liquidate New Association on Ground of Alleged Misrepresentations.

Depositions in the suit brought by Charles J. Corbett, a certificate holder, against the Lincoln Savings and Loan Association, which, in effect, seeks to wind up the corporation's affairs and force a reversion of its assets to the defunct Lincoln Housing Trust, will be taken in a few days.

This was announced Saturday by Corbett's attorney, Ephraim Caplan, at the same time that Caplan called upon officers of the savings and loan association to furnish him with the minute books and other records, which may be made exhibits at the trial of the case, set for Feb. 23, in Circuit Judge Grimm's Court.

Misrepresentation Is Alleged.

Caplan, who represents a number of dissatisfied certificate holders, particularly in the savings and loan association, charges that his clients were persuaded into trading their certificates in the housing trust for building and loan certificates, when the new certificates were represented to them as worth $1.10 on the dollar. He contends that the wording of the certificate contracts was altered, without removing the objectionable features which caused the Supreme Court to hold the housing trust was a lottery and therefore illegal, and also that it prevents them from obtaining the full cash surrender value, as originally represented in the housing trust certificates. Further, in the depositions Caplan will seek to find out if the savings and loan association, chartered by the Secretary of State Aug. 24, 1923, to do business under the building and loan association laws, has been authorized to do business by the State Finance Commissioner.

Caplan said that he had written repeatedly to the State Finance Commissioner to ascertain this point, but had as often been referred to Vital W. Garsche, attorney for the Lincoln Savings and Loan Association. In the end of the correspondence, Caplan wrote that he wanted the information from the State Finance Commissioner, as such, and suggested that the Attorney-General was his counsel. State Finance Commissioner Millsbaugh again referred him to Garsche. Caplan said, and when he made inquiry from that source, he was told the information was a confidential State matter.

Millsbaugh is to be questioned. Millsbaugh will likely be one of the first to be interrogated in the depositions, as will Thatcher A. Parker, president of the Lincoln Savings and Loan Association, and probably also, Ben G. Brinkman, Edward W. Forstner and Charles E. Hartenstein, formerly president, secretary and treasurer of both companies.

Caplan will endeavor to show that in the transaction, 1798 housing trust certificate holders, representing $99,954.19 of the trust's $1,151,523.94 of assets, were induced to exchange their holdings because of the implied approval of the State Finance Commissioner, who was appointed receiver for the housing trust, when it became insolvent, following the Supreme Court decision in 1922. He will endeavor further to show that the conversion was made by the former officers in order to relieve them of responsibility, financially and otherwise, by the exchange.

Those who declined to exchange their certificates, as told in court records, numbered 1111, for whom $241,532.77, or 21 per cent of the trust's assets, has been sequestered pending liquidation. None of them has received a dollar since the court decision and subsequent reversion, which is still pending. Caplan also contends that if the assets of the savings and loan company are re-transferred, the defunct housing trust will then be in a position to liquidate, as he contends further, should have been done by Receiver Millsbaugh in the beginning.

Company's Version of Case. Parker, who proceeded to the presidency of the Lincoln Savings and Loan Association, at the directors' meeting last August, following the ousting of Brinkman, Forstner and Hartenstein, had a different version of the proceedings, which he related to a reporter for

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

Founded by JOSEPH PULITZER
Dec. 12, 1878.
Published by the Pulitzer Publishing Company, Twelfth Boulevard and Olive Street.

THE POST-DISPATCH PLAT-FORM.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent;
never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

The Des Peres Plasco.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
IN THE Post-Dispatch of Feb. 3 you had a complete resume of a year's work on the River des Peres project with photos of the present condition.
Two years ago I wrote my fears as to the present plans as not worthy of a large city—now we already see a small part of it as a failure. Complaints of the officials—that Contractor Wall did not know how to work "wet dirt," beg the question—the discussion as to whether a six-inch retaining wall should now be double, or 12-inch thickness—the reason to commence work at the most disadvantageous place, because at this point more valuable property was located, and condemnations were more pleasible here. I agree with this reasoning—to wit: That the big Plasco shows are located at this point and are the most valuable to be improved by the "re-pavers," as quick as possible. "Wet dirt" job and should be done at its mouth on the Mississippi and not at the western point. A Government dredge boat put to work from this point would have eaten this wet dirt in a hurry, while vertical walls of rock and cement should have been built in advance of the dredge so as to deposit the dirt behind this wall and at the same time laying of the six sewer should have been carried on simultaneously. This would then be virtually a canal and being on a level with the water of the Mississippi River, be a large canal also.

WARREN C. RAUB.

Poorly Lighted Streets.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
Has anyone noticed that 90 per cent of the auto accidents and killings are after dusk? Has anyone noticed that these fatalities have increased since the police put a ban on bright lights on autos? There must be a reason. Fifty per cent of the machines are running around at night with their dimes which do not show two feet in front, because they are afraid of being picked up by the police for their lights not being right.
Quite a number have had to pay $5 and lose a day's work when they thought their lights were all right. Most of the streets are so poorly lighted that you can't see a person crossing the street a few feet in front of you.

EXPERIENCED CAREFUL DRIVER.

New Racing Bill.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
A BILL or law allowing pari mutuel betting on horse races would be a great help to discourage the many handbook makers which flourish everywhere. There is now a great deal of gambling daily with handbooks. They and the old-time race track bookmakers figure by percentage to win no matter what horse won, and by dishonesty could have certain horses win or lose and fix the odds to suit themselves.
Keep the gamblers away from baseball and horse racing and let us enjoy a half a day a week or so out in the open air.
Pari mutuel machines register each amount bet on each horse, and at all times show the total amount bet on each horse. After the association deducts five per cent of the total amount bet, every cent is then divided amongst the people who bet on the winners. With a State racing commission having full authority there would be a general increase in business as pari mutuels have always proven to be and without any complaints of dishonesty. This revenue would give us back our good old time fairs, where we can have a full display of our State products, etc., also would help the State in the matter of revenues instead of the gambling handbook makers.

A BUSINESS MAN.

The Women's Christian Home.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
I NOTICE from the papers recently that the folks who are trying to raise money for a new Women's Christian Home are having a hard time getting the people to respond. I for one want to say that I believe that this is one of the worst cases which has ever appeared to St. Louis. St. Louis certainly needs a place where a working girl can stay, where she will not have to pay out nearly all she earns for board and room and where she can live under a Christian homelike influence and can feel safe.
Chicago is far ahead of St. Louis in this respect. I was amazed last summer when I was up there how well Chicago took care of her working girls. They have about six beautiful places in different sections of the city, which they call "Sheds" (not homes, however), but they mean the same thing, where a working girl can live very reasonably and enjoy almost every convenience imaginable. They have had these clubs for years. I believe they were founded way back in 1878.

A KNOCKOUT FOR SPOILS.

Senator Couzens of Michigan has introduced a bill which is properly described in a headline of the Sunday Post-Dispatch as a "knockout" for the spoils system. It would take political influence out of the public service and make merit the only practical claim for a job.

This seems a superhuman task, but the methods of accomplishing it, as proposed by Mr. Couzens, are simple. His bill requires that records be kept by the heads of the executive and judicial departments of the Government as to the endorsements and sponsors of applicants for positions. Those records are to be open to public inspection. The bill provides a penalty for the failure of the head of a department to keep such records. It further provides that any Senator, Representative or member of a state legislative body, or any state official, or any officer of any state or national political organization who endorses the applicant for a place or for promotion shall be liable to fine, imprisonment and perpetual disbarment from Federal office holding.

As explained by the Washington correspondent of the Post-Dispatch, Mr. Couzens got his idea from his experience as Mayor of Detroit and also as a member of the Senate. In both offices he has been besieged by office seekers and their friends. That, of course, is the common lot of all men in public office. It is one of the afflictions of political success —perhaps the severest and most exasperating of the ills official flesh is heir to. The dispensing of patronage from the party standpoint and from the viewpoint of securing and advancing the official's own political fortune is a grievous burden to the most conscientious of our public servants. It invades their time which ought to be devoted to their official duties, it not infrequently colors their judgment on public questions, and as many of them confess in private conversations, it even haunts their slumbers.

Patronage, as administered on the present spoils basis, is a thoroughly vicious practice which can be defended on no ground except that of the "party welfare." It is the capital stock of the boss, the sustenance of the machine.

"If Congressmen knew their own best interests," said Mr. Couzens, "they would pass this bill to protect themselves against office hunters." That is the obvious truth. Nevertheless, the Couzens bill will meet with tremendous opposition. Our Senators and Representatives who are in office, not on their merits, but by party favor and for the purpose of playing the party game, will be against it. Powerful opposition, too, can be expected from all the bureaucrats and their legion of beneficiaries. Our clamorous, professional reformers, who are reformers primarily for revenue, will object to such revolutionary hostosity in the public service as the Couzens bill proposes.

Eventually, however, the spoils will have to be taken out of the public service. The practice is too costly. Unchecked, it means moral and material bankruptcy. Senator Couzens has pointed the way with his bill for correcting an intolerable condition.

BEFORE AND AFTER DOOMSDAY.

If it was a hard world to the "Brides of the Lamb" before the postponement of Judgment Day, how much harder must it be now. Instead of wings and magic clouds and tongues of fire there is the same old cookstove and the pangs of hunger demanding that it be employed as usual. Instead of celestial robes the accustomed denims and cow-hides of toil. In place of miraculous transportation in the skies the same old Ford and trolley. Instead of Miltonic fires and pyrotechnic bolts in the skies, the unperturbed sunrise horribly the same as usual. Instead of the vast bulk of humanity damned and roasting in a shrieking pit of flame and smoke, there they are just outside the doorway howling derision.

Horrible, horrible, that the selection of the 144-000 elect should be thus delayed and thereby rendered the more uncertain. Horrible that a handful of the chosen should be obliged to mingle again with people incapable of rising to magnificent emotional heights. Is there no reward for the faithful, no fruits of the imagination but disillusionment and despair?
To say nothing of those misguided souls who gave away their property or sold it at a discount to depart for a region where all blessings are free, those "brides" who waited at the church in vain need all the commiseration they can get.

Their mistake was that they took a peculiar way to revolt against the slow processes and unspectacular scenery of this life.

From dean of a law school to the attorney-general-ship, thence to the Supreme Court, and all in the space of a year or so. Who says a rolling Stone gathers no moss?

GAY LIFE IN SEDALIA.

Now Sedalia knows the name of every person who obtained whisky by prescription during the last month. This information was kindly supplied by the Prosecuting Attorney to a Sedalia newspaper.
Three hours after publication, it is reported that every gossip in town had the list by heart, and was linking it up with other facts in the lives of those listed.

Two of those who got whisky have died, but 440 others who still live are being vigorously discussed at every kaffee-kitch in town. In fact, Sedalia's social life has received the greatest impetus in years because now there is something to talk about. Jaws which have not been properly exercised for months are doing double time, and tongues which have not chattered since so-and-so was divorced are loosed from bondage.

Indeed, so much pleasure has been given Sedalia that the Prosecuting Attorney should by all means keep up the good work. After the present orgy has run its course, why not publish lists of families which engage in spats, men who are stingy to their wives, wives who spend too much time at the picture shows, young girls who smoke on the sly, boys who play tenth of a cent bridge, business men who take mysterious trips to the big city, and other crying small-town evils.

In this way, the Prosecuting Attorney will not only give Sedalia a head start toward the millennium, but he will assure himself the vote of the entire Gossips' Bloc every time he runs for office.

INVESTIGATION RECOMMENDED.

The subcommittee named by the House Judiciary Committee to make a preliminary examination of the charges against Federal Judge George W. English of East St. Louis, and his former referee in bankruptcy, Charles B. Thomas, has, by unanimous vote, recommended a sweeping investigation.

The subcommittee is to be commended for the vigor and promptness with which it performed its work. The unanimity of its recommendation seemingly assures the investigation.

That the charges as presented to the House by Representative Hawes require an investigation admits of no doubt. With their substance the public is familiar. The public, too, must have remarked the fine spirit in which Mr. Hawes performed a difficult task and the sincerity of his purpose. Personal animus was convincingly absent. He made it evident that he was concerned solely with the necessity of either proving or disproving charges that gravely reflected upon a high judicial officer in order that public confidence in the integrity and fairness of our courts might be maintained.

Judge English should be more eager than anyone else for this investigation. For him personally it is imperative that the truth or falsity of the charges be established. That can only be done by a searching investigation.

PORTER, THE CRUSADER.

Stephen G. Porter entered the opium conference with the warlike spirit of a Carrie Nation; he leaves it abruptly with the air of a willful child. It was a turbulent session, with Porter castigating those who could not agree with his radical ideas. Even so urbane and idealistic a man as Viscount Cecil was made to appear by Porter as one aligned with the forces of evil and opposed to the hosts of purity.

Porter's desire was to apply the Volstead principle to the opium traffic, and nothing less than such a violent and revolutionary result would satisfy him.
He wanted the production of poppy and coca leaves restricted immediately to scientific and medicinal needs. Within the period of 10 years, he wanted to suppress by fiat Oriental habits and customs thousands of years old.

In other words, Porter favored action which would infest India, Persia, Turkey and other countries with a vast enforcement problem compared with which our own liquor-enforcement troubles, intricate as they are, would be negligible. The effect of Porter's program would be to bring into existence a bootleg traffic in drugs of gigantic proportions. And drugs are infinitely more susceptible to bootlegging than liquor.

It was a mistake to send Porter to the opium conference. He is a congenial agitator on this question. He sees red when drugs are mentioned. Nothing less than uncompromising surrender to his ideas would induce him to treat with other nations. Is this the kind of spirit which should be taken to an international gathering, the very attendance at which by such countries as Great Britain is an evidence of their desire to curtail the drug traffic?

Great practical problems are involved. India's teeming millions consider opium smoking and eating an inviolable right, just as we do the smoking of tobacco. Agreed that drug taking is a ruinous practice, the fact remains that a custom so deeply rooted cannot be wiped out instantly without grave consequences. It was with the spirit of earnest disposition, rather than with the fire-eating zeal of crusade, that the United States should have sat in the opium conference. Porter's bellicosity has injured the very cause which so inflames his heart.

If it isn't one thing it's another. The women had hardly gotten rid of corsets before they took up cigarettes.

ANOTHER BLOW AT SUPPRESSION.

The subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate has reported "without prejudice" the Cummins-Vaile bill to remove the ban of the Federal law from the circulation of information on birth control. The Voluntary Parenthood League is working for the passage of the measure at the present session.

The provisions of the bill are simple. They do not commit the Government to birth control or afford facilities for its promotion. They merely remove scientific information on a vital subject from the category of obscene and vicious literature for-bidden the mails. The bill restores free access to knowledge on the methods of birth control which was prohibited in the Comstock law of 1873.

The effort to remove this prohibition is a part of the movement for the restoration of freedom of speech and individual liberty. Birth control is widely practiced by the comfortable classes who acquire desired knowledge regardless of the prohibition. For such comfortable classes, including Congressmen, it is arrant hypocrisy to keep closed to others legal access to the same knowledge.

Another bill to curb the St. Louis laundry trust has been introduced. What is it to be this time—a showdown or a shakedown?

Anyhow, the foreigner who pays our income tax does not talk with a French accent.

THE HARDY ANNUAL.

(From the Brooklyn Eagle.)

The salary of the keeper of the Tower of London during the reign of Queen Elizabeth was about $500 a year. He also received all the Government allowances made to offenders of high rank who were too proud to accept it. All cattle that slipped off London Bridge, all carts that fell into the moat, all flogmen and jettison from the Thames, two flags of wine from every vessel arriving from Bordeaux, and many other things were included in his fees. It was, indeed, a job very much like a good place in our own time on the prohibition enforcement staff.

MR. ANTWINE'S OPINION

"Now that Mr. Davis is home from the world forgetting and by the world forgot, people are beginning to ask what dreadful mistake he made in the late campaign. Mr.
Antwine said:

"Mr. Davis was terribly defeated. No one else had ever been so terribly defeated for the presidency, and now that a degree of dispassion has succeeded the heat of conflict there is some curiosity to know what he did wrong.

"I have had a theory of about it. If it is time to postulate theories, I would like to get mine in. I have thought all the time that Mr. Davis made a mistake in denouncing the Republicans for thieving. I am sure that had he ridiculed them as pickers or not making off with a great deal more when there was so much lying around he would have hit the popular fancy and won hands down.

"As it was, the Democrats appeared before the country as moralists, and the Republicans got before the country as business men. There could be only one outcome to that. It made the Democrats look piffing and futile. Had they come out as big business men, with big ideas and the intimation that they would make times so good everybody could steal something the Republicans would have seemed feeble and unprogressive and the people would have bur-led them under an avalanche of votes.

"Perhaps in the quiet of the Sahara, Mr.
Davis had a chance to think that out. If so, he probably agrees with me. The country has never thought of Mr. Fall as a thief, but as a boob. That is what Mr. Davis should have called him. He might have had all of New Mexico. Mr. Davis proposed honesty, which everybody knows is impossible for anyone at this time to comment on that.
The people did it, and they did it emphatically," Mr. Antwine said.

the Indians of the Klamath tribe in Ore-work of the Government trappers that there are more coyotes on the Klamath keeps all people from being entirely sen-

PUBLIC OPINION

JUSTICE BEFORE TECHNICALITY.

From the Dallas News.
THE bill which represents the best thought of the Texas Bar Association with regard to reform of court procedure now before the Legislature. The gist of it is that the Supreme Court of Texas should undertake to cover the whole range of the lawyers go in presenting their cases in the Justice, County, District and Appellate courts. When a procedure is cumbersome the Supreme Court can change it. If it is superfluous the Court can abolish it. If it is incomplete the Court can complete it.
Being constantly in session for the purpose of promulgating rules, the Court, it is believed, will shortly be able to dispose of a great mass of legal business which would otherwise arise for review in the courts.
Once the lawyers are taught that it is expedient to cover the whole range of a formality which is at stake in practice in civil cases, and the whole profession will be elevated in its tone and in its courtesies.
The profit to the public and to the taxpayers is incalculable. The bill does not undertake to cover the whole range of procedure. Criminal trials will not be directly affected by it. Substantive law is untouched. Extraordinary proceedings such as attachment are not disturbed. Interveners, probate and like tribunals are not involved. The whole aim is to make procedure in civil cases flexible and reasonably enough to expedite, rather than clog, the dispatch of court business. The statute makes it possible to carry out an express provision of the Constitution of Texas. The Bar Association quotes a great Judge of Great Britain as saying of the English method, similar to that proposed in the authority desired for the Supreme Court: "It may be asserted without fear of contradiction that it is not possible in the year 1919 for an honest litigant to be defeated by any step in litigation."

PROHIBITING THE SACRAMENT.

From the Washington Post.
THE latest prohibition proposal, of the Governor of Colorado, assuredly seems calculated to bring affairs to a crisis.
It is to the effect that the Legislature should make a law forbidding the use of wine for sacramental purposes. That would, of course, be equivalent to a prohibition of the sacrament itself, since the use of wine is esteemed essential to the celebration of the most solemn rite of the Christian Church.
The proposal is a direct challenge to the festivals of the Jewish faith. Hitherto extreme prohibitionists have been going so farther than to demand abolition of a medical practice dating from the time of Hippocrates. Now they would suppress a sacrament dating from the time of Jesus of Nazareth, and another dating from the Exodus. Seeing that Congress is forbidden to pass any law interfering with the free exercise of religion, it would be interesting to know the exact relation of such a State law to the Constitution. It would at any rate seem to be a poor way to promote a great moral reform, to outrage the deepest religious sentiments and faith of the people.
Jesus said: "Do this in remembrance of Me." "If you do," prohibition extremists would reply, "You'll be sent to jail." This sort of thing is less aggravated degree, has been tried before, and has not long succeeded. It is no likelier to succeed now.
The United States of America, in the twentieth century, is a poor place in which to try to deny "freedom to worship God."

DRAMA

Phil Baker's Concertina and Johnny Burke's "Drafted" Hits of Music Box Revue.

By RICHARD L. STOKES.

WE were not keenly impressed by the third edition of Irving Berlin's "Music Box Revue," which began a week's engagement at the American last night before an unusually large audience. It seemed distinctly inferior, in dress as well as content, to both its predecessors. The effect in general was as if a theater, a big cast and an imposing bank roll had been given to children as toys with which to play.

The principal successes did not fall to Florence Moore, or Joseph Sanley, or Ivy Sawyer, or Solly Ward, but to Phil Baker and his concertina, and to Johnny Burke and his monologues. "Drafted," a tale of the woes of an unheroic doughboy which has been for some years a classic of the vaudeville circuit, and which remains distinctly inferior after many repetitions.
Baker's incidental exchange of repartee with an actor in an upper box would have halted the show if the audience could have had its way. Ward earned a bit of favor with a dialect stump speech.

Numerous Comedy Sketches.
There are several sketches of general or satirical intent, which by no means measure up to similar turns in Andre Charlot's Revue. "The Fraudway Ticket Office" undertakes a travesty on the rapacity of Broadway ticket speculators. "Sprits of 1923" attempts an spiritualism, and ends with the shooting of the medium. "The Wedding Ring" is a marimonial bout. In "The Lucky Strike," it is pretended that an electric fuse has blown out and the skit is carried on with lighted matches.

"Another Girl Gone Wrong" shows Florence Moore ready to jump in the river, as a consequence of a taxi ride in Central Park with a stranger in brown shoes. Joseph Sanley is about to dissuade her, then she confesses that she is a violinist operator. Thereupon he dunks her savagely into the water.
George S. Kaufman's playlet, "If Men Played Cards as Women Do," is a burlesque on feminine foibles played by male actors. Another shooting skit, "The Motive," a satire on detective plays.

The Spectacle Numbers.

There are several pretentious spectacles, vitiated usually by the puerility of their ideas. "An Orange Grove in California" was perhaps the most pleasing, with its grove of golden fruit. But someone had the bright inspiration of turning the oranges into electric lights, and flooding the theater with a draft impregnated with the odor of crushed orange peel. Other scenes of this class are entitled "The Music Box Garden of Girls," "One Girl," "Tell Me a Bedtime Story," "The Maid of Mesh," "The Fisherman's Dream," "Little Butterfly," "The Waltz of Long Ago" and "The Silver Curtain."

John Steel sang several ditties, chiefly off the key—a fault in which he was abetted by Ruth Thomas. The three Wainwright sisters warbled harmonies. The dancing suffered through the dance of Florence O'Denishawn, who was said to be ill. But Dorothy Diller displayed a good toe technique. The whole show was largely of spare and groping tunes by Irving Berlin.

Elmer Glyn's Hectic "Three Weeks" Given at Empress.
TIGER skin and all, "Three Weeks" came to the Empress Theater yesterday. Just mandarin! All about the wicked, brutal, drunken king and how his good and beautiful wife must have suffered when he was out on party.

Then came a day when she stepped out herself, when she met Paul Verdayne, youthful, passionate—and Nordic. Some years later

The score is composed largely of sparkling gaudy tunes by Irving Berlin.

Elmer Glyn's "Heckle 'Three Weeks' Given at Empress.

TOGER skin and all, "Three Weeks" sang to the Empress Theater yesterday. Just again, here! All about the wicked, brutal, drunken king and how his good and beautiful wife must have suffered when he was out on parole.

Then came a day when she stepped out herself, when she met Paul Verdayne, youthful, passionate and Nordic. Some years later the king defied to slay his good woman's gins with a dagger and his faithful servant was to put a bullet through His Majesty with a silver arrow. That's the story of the play. Most of the audience wanted a happy ending. But the happy ending was exclusively for the Director Woodard—when he perused the box office statement last night.

More restraint and subtlety might have helped in the presentation of the play, but it is doubtful. Hazel Whitmore was the beautiful queen, and between the king's insults and her love for Paul her voice was such a tremble. Selmer Jackson, Paul, looked like a movie hero who made the girls gasp with the whistles he wore.

Leo Linhart distinguished himself in a cast which includes most of the Woodward Players by the manner in which he suggested the unheroic gentility of the drunkard, and the manner in which he painted the man who paints the scenery. The Venetian setting is the nearest thing in scene the Woodward Players have yet offered.

Headlines at Orpheum.

RAY GYGI with his violin and Margaret Severn with her troupe of little dancers seemed to find little difficulty in rising to a position of pre-eminence over the billed headlines in the program at the Orpheum last night. While accepting the quality of the music and the dancing and the other acts, the audience in most of the other theaters followed there. In this Gysi-Severn combination, a tone and grace that are rare in the theater when one's recollection is a poor place in which to try to freedom to worship God.

New Films

By NIE.

IN an effort to give it a name which would suggest a lot of snappy girls the producers of the feature at the Kings and Rivoli theaters this week hit upon the title of "Fifth Avenue Models." Suggestive of cheap burlesque it is the only poor thing connected with one of the most entertaining movie dramas of the season for the picture tells a pleasing and interesting love story in a charming way.

There are some shots showing a lot of Fifth avenue models in a smart clothes shop but they have so little to do with the real story that it was silly to drag them into the title. The poor name however served one good use. It gave the Kings an excuse for putting on a lot of live models wear the clothes which will be worn this spring and summer by women who have the price. There is some singing and dancing mixed in with the fashion show. Sherry Linn, the Marshall, George Reed, the Williams brothers and Lewis Williamson proving excellent entertainers. Norman Kerry and Mary Philbin have the leading roles in the picture.

THE saving grace of what the film producers have done to Molner's most delightful drama, "The Swan," in presenting a movie play of the same name, which is showing at the Missouri Theater this week, is the line on the screen which says that the picture version was "suggested by the play." It probably was, but the suggestion was never carried out, for the picture was made for the screen and the original version followed exactly. The producers probably were astounded when it turned out to be one of the best movie dramas ever thrown on the silver sheet. But, having scored that success, it was thought best never to take such desperate chances again.

What's the use of having a lot of trial and true and sure-fire stuff on hand if you are not going to use it? So when "The Swan" was being made ready for the cinema the old reliable happy ending No. 6 (File A, Shelf 3) was gotten out and dusted. "The Swan" was a touching story of a girl who became a painter and a boy who became a pilot. They met in a flying school and fell in love. The picture was made in 1925, and it was a very good picture. It was a very good picture. It was a very good picture.

A. H. DICKEY, EX-SECRETARY TO MARY BAKER EDDY, DEAD

Member of Board of Directors of Christian Science Mother Church By the Associated Press.

BROOKLYN, Mass., Feb. 9.—Adam H. Dickey, member of the Board of Directors of the Christian Science Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, and a trustee under the will of Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the church, died at his home here yesterday. He was born in Toronto, in 1864, and was for years engaged in manufacture in Kansas City, Mo.

He was first reader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Kansas City from 1906 until 1908, when he became secretary. Mrs. Eddy, a position he held until her death in 1910. For a time he was treasurer of the mother church and was one of the trustees of the Christian Science Benevolent Association from its foundation.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lillian S. Dickey, and by three sisters, the Misses Louise, Lillian, and Florence. He was also the brother of Walter, Nathaniel, Frederick and Harold, all of Kansas City.

COL. HENRY DOSCH, 84, DEAD

Native of Germany Served in Fifth Missouri Cavalry. By the Associated Press.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 9.—Col. Henry Dosch, 84 years old, many years identified in horticulture and the fraternal activities of Oregon, died here last night. Since Jan. 15, when he caught his heel in a revolving door and fell, fracturing his hip, he had been in a hospital. Col. Dosch was born June 24, 1841, in Mainz, Germany, the son of Col. Ernest Dosch, an army official and member of the Diplomatic Corps. He came to the United States in 1860, serving in the Civil War. In 1864 he moved to Oregon.

On May 15, 1861, he enlisted in the cavalry as a member of Gen. Fremont's headquarters. In October was wounded in the right leg and right wrist in an encounter at Springfield, Mo. He later re-enlisted, this time in the Fifth Missouri Cavalry, and after about a year's service in which he became a Colonel, he was discharged in St. Louis. He walked from Omaha to Salt Lake City behind an ox team in the summer of 1863. He is survived by two sons, one of them, Fred G. Plummer, 54 years old, formerly a noted buck and wing dancer with the old Thatcher, Primrose and West Minstrels, and a former professional baseball player, died here Saturday night from the effects of drinking redistilled denatured alcohol, according to the finding of the coroner. A bottle partly filled with the liquor and an empty bottle were found on his dresser in a hotel room. Plummer lived at Lincoln, Neb.

A Good Old Meller.

SINCE we have started out to be glib about little things let us ask how it happened that a 1925 movie which did not happen to get into the picture of a dance hall in 1949. It's there all right in the meller-drama, "The Devil's Cargo," which is on view at Loew's State.

Otherwise, this movie thriller of the good old wide-open days is a lifelike picture of California when the days and nights were wider open there than anywhere else in the country. William Collier Jr., Wallace Beery and Pauline Starke have the leading roles in a very large and excellent cast.

Not So Enticing.

"ENTICEMENT" at the Grand Central has just one thing to make it worth consideration—Mary Astor. Mary is about the easiest young woman to look at on the screen today, and if the picture is not worth while she certainly is. The story of "Enticement" was not very entertaining to begin with, and it is not so very well played but fortunately there are a lot of close ups of Miss Astor which make up for considerable of the other shortcomings. The musical show, which has been holding forth at the Grand Central for several weeks has been whittled down to two or three singers and dancers and a jazz band.

"If I Marry Again," with Doris Kenyon, Hobart Bosworth, Anna Q. Nilsson and Frank Mayo, is the feature at the West End Lyric and Capitol. The scenes are laid in San Francisco and the South Seas and it makes a good movie story. Eugene Dennis is in her final week at the Capitol.

Rural Flapper a Flopper.

DOROTHY GISH (she's the dark-haired one of those awfully tearful sisters, or at least she had dark hair last night) is paired with Glenn Hunter at the De la Monte this week in "The Country Flapper." ## DR. TORREY PREACHES ON COST OF NOT BEING CHRISTIAN

"Some Have Just Enough Religion to Make Them Miserable." He Declares.

"What it costs not to be a Christian" was the subject of the Rev. Dr. R. A. Torrey's sermon at Washington and Compton Presbyterian Church last night, opening the second week of his evangelistic campaign. He said more than not to be a Christian than it costs to be a Christian.

"Not to be a Christian costs the sacrifice of peace of conscience and heart. No one out of Christ has peace. You may have pleasure, fun, merriment, gaiety, good or delightful things; you may succeed for a time in drowning in a measure the deeper voice of conscience in excitement or pleasure, or money-getting, but way down in the bottom of your heart you have no peace. It costs the sacrifice of joy of the highest, purest, truest, most satisfying and most enduring joy that is to be found here on earth. There are two kinds of Christians, the kind who profess and the kind who are really Christians. Some have just enough religion to make them miserable.

"Not to be a Christian costs the hope of eternal life. The Christian has that hope. It is God's insurance against eternal loss. He who has that hope is put up against that? And you all know that hope of the future is more important than present possession. It costs the sacrifice of the highest manhood and womanhood; it costs the sacrifice of God's favor; it costs the sacrifice of eternal life, and means to perish forever.

"Just as the beginning of eternal life we can see in the men and women here, we also see the beginnings of what it means to perish. It begins here and continues on out in eternity forever. Take whose sorrow was heaviest? For whose agony was most crushing, whose midnight darkness of shame, anguish and despair were most unutterable, and carry it all out into eternity, and you will have some faint conception of what it means to perish."

CEPLIAK COMING TO U. S.

Russian Archbishop Will Extend Thanks for Sympathy.

Archbishop Cepliak, central figure in the religious trial by the Bolsheviks in Moscow, will visit the United States to personally extend his thanks for the sympathy extended him in this country. This information is contained in a letter received yesterday at St. Louis University from Capt. McCullagh, who recently lectured at the university on "The Bolshevik Persecution of Christianity."

Whoever to Capt. McCullagh from Rome, the prelate said that while he was coming to America at the invitation of "my beloved Polish people," he would also have the opportunity of thanking "the noble-hearted American people for their great charity toward the persecuted Christians in Russia."

Edgar Shelton and Clarence Bloemer Picasse Capacity Audience at Odeon.

Two young St. Louis soloists and a program of melody served to fill the Odeon for the Symphony Orchestra's popular concert under the baton of Frederick Fischer yesterday.

Edgar Shelton, who is head of the music department of Eureka College at Eureka, Ill., played the Mendelssohn G minor concerto with crisp articulation, warm beauty of tone, fine feeling for style and poetry of mood. The same composer's "On Wings of Song" was the encore number.

Clarence Bloemer of a family long prominent in singing societies here proffered the "Prelude" from Wagner's "Die Meistersinger von Nurnberg." An extra number of light and sentimental type, "The Secret," pleased the audience.

ST. LOUIS WOMAN WINS MEDAL

Honored by U. S. D. C. for Essay on Gen. Joseph Wheeler.

A gold medal has been received by Mrs. George H. Marshall, 5309 Cabanne avenue, an award for the best essay on the life of Gen. Joseph Wheeler submitted in a nationwide contest conducted by the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The award was made at the national convention of the organization held recently at Savannah, Ga., and Mrs. Marshall received the decoration last week.

Mrs. Marshall is recording secretary of Margaret A. E. McClure Chapter, U. D. C., of St. Louis and is one of the hostesses for the ball to be given Friday night at the Chase Hotel to raise funds for the chapter's educational fund. In a former contest Mrs. Marshall's essay on "The American Soldier in France" was awarded first place.

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about 25. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy, ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle, and soothes the sore, irritable membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

T. W. LAWSON WAS COLORFUL FIGURE

Financier and Author Said to Have Made and Lost $40,000,000.

By the Associated Press.
 BOSTON, Feb. 9.—Thomas W. Lawson, author and financier, who died here early Sunday, had been little in the public eye in the last two years and had been living quietly in Maine and Boston. He died in a hospital after having suffered a sudden relapse following a recent operation. His two sons, Douglas and Arnold Lawson, were with him when the end came. He was in his sixty-eighth year. He will be buried tomorrow beside his wife on a small portion of his magnificent country estate that was saved from the wreck of his fortune several years ago.

When Mrs. Lawson died in 1906 after nine years of invalidism, her husband gave orders that nothing should be disturbed in the rooms she occupied at "The Nest," a simple cottage adjoining the main house. "The Nest" was a small place, Mrs. Lawson was buried near "The Nest." "Tom" Lawson will be laid beside her after funeral services in "The Nest."

Began Work at 12.
 "Tom" Lawson, son of a Nova Scotia carpenter, began his spectacular career by running away from school at the age of 12 and finding employment in the old State street firm of Stevens, Amory & Co. By the time he was 16 he was counting his gains and losses in four figures.

At that time a Western railroad, now part of the "Big Four," was in financial difficulties, its stock falling to $3 a share. His employers were interested in negotiations for the returning of some of their money which had been carried to Canada by an officer of the firm. Young Lawson made up a pool, buying stock at $3 and selling it for $22. He made $40,000 on the deal. Soon afterward he lost all but $130 in another pool.

Supporting Up and Down.
 It was characteristic of him that he gave a dinner to his associates with this money, handing the waiter his last $5 as a tip. Luck soon returned to his standard, however, and by the time he was 20 years old his bank account was close to six figures.

From then on his life was a series of ups and downs, with fortune alternating frowning and smiling upon him. His fortunes were made and lost over night. It is said that in 20 years he made and lost $40,000,000. He carried emeralds and diamonds loose in his pocket. One story tells how he once produced 20 certificate checks for $100,000 each which he had been carrying around with him and told his secretary to bank enough of them to pay all outstanding bills—then aggregating $400,000—and give him back the change. He is said to have carried always $7000 in bills on his person.

Lawson was said to have spent $2,000,000 on Dreamworld, a magnificent estate at Egypt, Mass., which included a village for his workers, a race track and the latest word in stables and dog kennels. "The Nest," to which Mr. and Mrs. Lawson often retired, adjoined the main building of the estate.

Estate Sold in 1922.
 With the passage of years, however, Lawson's luck seemed to desert him; his golden touch lost its Midas-like power. And so, in 1922, Dreamworld and everything connected with it went under the auctioneer's hammer to meet liabilities of about $225,000. It was said at the time that this did not mean that Lawson himself was insolvent. It seemed ironical that the sale should have been consummated on Friday the thirteenth of October. After the sale, Lawson disappeared from public view.

A year ago, suffering from diabetes, he was brought to this city from Bar Harbor, Me., about three weeks ago, and on Jan. 24 underwent an operation, preliminary to another which was to have been performed later.

Lawson is survived by two sons and four daughters.

He was the author of "Financial Finance," "Friday the Thirteenth," "The Leak" and other books.

Kroger's Reliable Names

Each and every item handled at Kroger's is absolutely reliable. Take with the names and know them to be dependable. Cereal prices generally have advanced in cost due to the tremendous advances in the grain markets. Kroger, however, has not advanced prices, and today therefore is offering even greater value than ever before. We receive shipments of cereal lots direct from the producer and can hence guarantee absolute freshness.

WOMAN FOUND DEAD BY BOYS
 Body on Porch of Office Shack at Public Dump

Mrs. Elizabeth La Garce, 54 years old, 5318 Shaw avenue, was found dead on the porch of an office shack at the public dump, Macklitt and Dagget avenues, at 9:15 a. m. yesterday by boys playing in the neighborhood. Death apparently was due to natural causes.

Police were notified and the body was removed to city hospital and to the morgue, where it was identified by the husband, Thomas La Garce, who had notified the police that his wife had been missing since 3:30 p. m. Saturday, when she started on an errand. An inquest will be held to determine cause of death.

Corporal Slady by Sentry.
 By the Associated Press.
 HONOLULU, Feb. 9.—Corp. William Crumback was shot to death here last night when he failed to heed the challenge of a sentry at Schofield Barracks. The sentry fired five shots, all of which took effect. Crumback's home was in Detroit, Mich. The sentry was provisionally charged with murder.

 When markets advance, as they have been doing, it stands to reason that the average dealer who buys as he needs in small quantities must raise prices as prices are raised to him. But with Kroger it is different, as we contract for a large supply from the best packers at the time of canning. Hence we can offer the finest quality of each grade, guarantee absolute uniformity and sell at prices very much under those in general.

FAMILY'S FIGHT TO KEEP CONTROL OF BIG INDUSTRY

Dominance of Metalware Plant by Niedringhaus Challenged for First Time in Its History.

STOCKHOLDERS TO MEET IN MARCH

Minority Committee Formed Which Is Demanding Seven Members of Board of Directors.

Whether the leadership of the Niedringhaus family in the metalware industry, which began in 1855 in a St. Louis tin shop and expanded into a $25,000,000 corporation, will be continued or checked, is to be determined on March 19.

On that date the annual stockholders' meeting of the National Enameling and Stamping Co., the $25,000,000 corporation, will be held at Jersey City. Anticipating a struggle for control, both sides have begun solicitation of proxies from independent stockholders.

Interest in the outcome of the election is especially keen in St. Louis, where the Niedringhaus reside, and Granite City, where the main plant of the National company gives employment to a considerable portion of the city, which was founded by a Niedringhaus.

Situation at Present. At present all 15 directorships are held by the so-called Niedringhaus interests. A minority stockholders' committee, composed of six bankers, brokers and capitalists from St. Louis, Chicago, Pittsburgh and New York, has demanded that it be given representation on the directorate to the extent of seven members to be named by it.

George W. Niedringhaus, president of the company, to whom the demand was addressed made no direct reply to it, but in an open letter to stockholders, said that while the committee claims to own, with certain unnamed parties, upwards of 30,000 shares, none was a stockholder of record on Jan. 30, 1925.

Among charges made against the management was that of nepotism, assertion being made that at various times since 1919 some 15 members of the Niedringhaus family have been on the company payroll, and in one year when eight members were employed they received an aggregate of $171,000 in salaries. In reply to this, it was stated, there are at present only five persons connected directly or indirectly with the Niedringhaus family who have anything to do with the management of the national company and their salaries total less than $35,000 a year.

These five are George W. Niedringhaus, G. Hayward Niedringhaus, Albert W. Niedringhaus, Lee I. Niedringhaus and Fred C. Orthwein.

Inception of the Company. What is now the National company had its inception when Frederick G. Niedringhaus at the age of 18 left his native Germany and came to St. Louis in 1855. After working six months at a tinner's bench he was joined by his brother, William F. Niedringhaus. Together they conducted a small tin and roofing shop in North St. Louis.

At that time tinware was made by the soldering process, the stamping of articles of tinware from single sheets of tin being a new French process. The enterprising brothers brought to St. Louis a Frenchman, familiar with the stamping process, which they put to use in their small factory, the St. Louis Stamping Co.

Business was good and in the early 80s the brothers decided to build a plant across the river in Illinois. The site selected became the industrial basis of Granite City, named in honor of the "granite-ware" produced in the Niedringhaus factory.

Mergers With Other Firms. In 1899 the St. Louis Stamping Co. was united with other concerns to form the National Enameling and Stamping Co., of which Frederick G. became president and William F. vice president. The latter died in 1908 and the former in 1922, three years after he had retired as president. His successor is George W. Niedringhaus, son of William F.

George W. Niedringhaus is also president of the William F. Niedringhaus Investment Co., a corporation formed in 1911 to manage the estate of his father. A receivership suit against this corporation, filed by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Oliver B. Niedringhaus, is pending.

Be on your guard for signs of Pyorrhea

Just as the stability of a building is dependent upon its foundations, so healthy teeth depend upon healthy gums.

Bleeding gums are the first sign of Pyorrhea's approach. Then they begin to recede and the healthy pink color gives place to a pale, whitish tint. Soon the teeth are loosened, pus pockets form and drain disease-breeding poisons through the system.

Forhan's For the Gums contains just the right proportion of Forhan's Astringent (as used by the dental profession) to neutralize oral poisons, and keep the gums in a firm, strong, healthy condition. Even if you don't care to discontinue your favorite dentifrice, at least start using Forhan's once a day.

Forhan's is more than a tooth paste; it checks Pyorrhea. Thousands have found it beneficial for years. For your own sake ask for and get Forhan's For the Gums. At all druggists, 35c and 60c in tubes.

Feel Stiff and Achy After Every Cold?

Are You Miserable With Backache—Tired, Weak, All Worn Out? Then Look to Your Kidneys!

DOES every cold, chill or attack of grip leave you worn out and miserable? Do you feel old and lame, stiff and rheumatic? Does your back ache with a dull, unceasing throb?

Then look to your kidneys! Grip, colds and chills overload the blood with poisons and throw a heavy strain on the kidneys. The kidneys weaken under this rush of new work and impurities fill the system.

Then comes torturing backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness and annoying kidney irregularities.

Don't wait for serious kidney sickness. Realize that your kidneys have weakened in fighting the cold created poisons. Give them the help they need. Begin using Doan's Pills today. Doan's have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These St. Louis Folks:

HERMAN J. BIRK, prop. of barber shop, 1619 Park Av. says: "Standing in the shop and taking cold brought on pains across my kidneys. My back ached and ached, and it took but little work to tire me out. I felt nervous, and many times my sight was blinded by tiny spots and specks. My kidneys were inactive also. After using Doan's Pills I was entirely cured and the cure has lasted."

Mrs. G. Hipp, 2006 Russell Av. says: "A cold settled in my kidneys and disordered them. My back was weak and ached, and it took but little work to tire me out. I felt nervous, and many times my sight was blinded by tiny spots and specks. My kidneys were inactive also. After using Doan's Pills I was entirely cured and the cure has lasted."

C. KOLLWITZ, machinist 4126 Fair Av. says: "I had a cold and backache came on. When I stooped a catch took me across my kidneys and I could hardly straighten. My kidneys were weak and acted too freely; sometimes at night I had to get up. After using Doan's Pills from Wolff & Wilson's Drug Co., the trouble left me."

MRS. A. LEBLANC, 4332 Prairie Av. says: "I had a cold and it put my kidneys out of order. They didn't act frequently enough. My back ached and I had a bearing down pain through the small of it. I suffered with headaches and dizzy spells and spots came before my eyes. I was also extremely nervous and felt tired out. After using four boxes of Doan's Pills from Otto's Drug Store I was relieved."

Rickard Expects Dempsey to Face Gibbons June 5

Declares He Has Kearns' Assurance That Champion Will Battle.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Professing to have implicit confidence in Jack Dempsey's readiness to produce in a busy summer, Tex Rickard, today named the Yankee Stadium as the locality and June 5 as the tentative date of the championship bout between Dempsey and the lion's proposed meeting with Tom Gibbons for the heavyweights championship.

A provision in the articles of agreement, the promoter added, would call for the winner to fight with Harry Wills next September. It is no star-chamber secret the Wills may not be permitted to fight for the title in this section now or at any future date, but Rickard, one who covers all bets, he merely wants to have the Wills bout in his bag in the event that the negro is officially tolerated as a championship principal here. Further, the dangle of Wills in the background of a Dempsey-Gibbons match is not expected to injure attendance.

In addition to deciding upon tentative date and site, Rickard also has decided that Dempsey and Gibbons will box at night and the both must be on the ground at least a month before the actual proceedings.

He says he has the championship assurance of Jack Kearns, the referee, that the fight will be well attended.

CONFERENCE LEAD TO BE AT STAKE WHEN PIKERS OPPOSE KANSAS

Teams Tied, With Basket Race at Half-Way Mark

Winner of Contest Thursday Night Will Be Favored to Capture Title.

The half-way mark in the Missouri Valley Conference basketball race, now reached by most of the teams, finds the favorite University of Kansas team tied with the Washington University players for first place, with a record of five victories and one defeat. The most important game on the conference schedule this week is the one between Kansas and Washington at the Coliseum here Thursday night.

The winner of that game will obtain undisputed possession of first place and be generally regarded as the ultimate winner of the Valley race, which closes early next month. Kansas is favored to win another basketball title this year, but if Coach Don White's players stop the Jayhawks here, Piker stock will take a considerable rise.

Kansas Has Busy Week.
The schedule this week favors the Pikers greatly. Washington's only game is with Kansas, and the players will have plenty of opportunity to practice and rest. The Pikers also will have some slight advantage in playing on their own home court. On the other hand, Kansas plays two Valley games this week before meeting the Pikers. Tonight the Jayhawks play Ames at Lawrence. This should be easy sailing for Kansas, and it is very likely that Jayhawk substitutes will play most of the game. Kansas defeated Ames at Ames, 25 to 8.

On Wednesday night the rapidly climbing Grinnell College players invaded Lawrence. Kansas defeated Grinnell, 29 to 28, early in the season.

son, but Grinnell has been improving steadily. Grinnell was strong enough to stop Oklahoma last week, and if the Pioneers are "right," they may be able to cause the Jayhawks much trouble. Grinnell immediately after the St. Louis game, the Jayhawks train for St. Louis to meet the Pikers Thursday night. And after the battle here with Washington, Kansas will journey to Columbia to fight their traditional foe the Missouri Tigers. Thus if Kansas comes through this week's strenuous program unscathed, the Jayhawks will not only be sitting securely at the top of the conference heap, but will be expected to stay there.

Match Race With Wide of Sweden Greatest in His Career, Nurmi Says

Nurmi, After Developing His Sprinting Powers, Agrees to International Match at His Opponent's Favorite Distance.

CHAPTER XI.—Nurmi's Greatest Race. By Charles E. Parker, Of the New York World Staff.

PAAVO NURMI does not hesitate when you ask him to name the race which gave him his greatest thrill—the race he regards as his most noteworthy contribution to track athletics. Nurmi will attempt tonight to add a record for a 3000-yard run to the 19 new indoor marks he has already created. Jole Ray of Chicago will compete in a three-quarter-mile event against Jimmy Connolly, recent world record holder for the distance; Lloyd Hahn of the B. A. A., and Leo Larivee of Holy Cross.

Some might suppose he would hark back to 1907 when, as a 10-year-old, he covered the 1500-meter course in five minutes and two seconds, for that test against time made Paavo aware of his limitless possibilities.

But for Paavo his greatest race and greatest thrill came in 1921 in a matched race with Elvin Wide in Stockholm.

Incidentally Paavo, in speaking of this race, reveals something that is not generally known in this country. He says Elvin Wide is a native of Finland, and that Sweden gained Wide's services for the Olympic games only through the hurried issuance of Swedish naturalization papers. In America Wide has been regarded as a native son rather than an adopted citizen of the latter country, and Finland has received no credit for fathering and nurturing this fine athlete.

The duel between Paavo and Wide was an event of international importance. Royalty and civil officials honored the race with their presence and the most pompous among them completely lost their dignity as the race progressed.

1500-meter course be specified. Finland's athletic officials were for a 5000 or 10,000 meter race. Paavo himself was not fussy.

Develops His Sprinting.
Nurmi devoted himself to sprints of 300 or 400 yards, then gradually increased the distance, attempting to continue the same speed for the longer courses. He timed himself or had others time him. And he found that the best performances of W. G. George and Tommie Connolly and John Paul Jones and Norman Taber were within his range.

It was this discovery that caused him to step in on the wordy controversy over the distance to be run in the matched race with Wide.

Elvin wishes to race me 1500 meters," Paavo said. "The mile is only a few yards greater. Why not make it a mile race and score our times at the 1500-meter mark? That is satisfactory to me."

Swedish athletic followers were delighted at that decision. Some had doubted Wide's ability to down Nurmi in a long race, but all were certain he could take Paavo's measure at the mile, and in Sweden and Finland the day of the race could not come fast enough. Foot-racing is the national sport of both countries. There is natural jealousy, and the fact that Wide, a native of Finland, had forsaken that land for Sweden, intensified that emotion.

Sweden, of course, claimed Wide as its own and was predicting for him an Olympic career which would far surpass that of Finland's favorite, Paavo Nurmi.

Whenever and wherever a Swede and a Finn met there was a discussion of the relative merits of the two foot-racers and it was not long before a matched race was demanded.

There was considerable haggling over the distance. Wide's excellent marks at the 1500 meters brought a request from Sweden that the

American League Schedule to Be OK'd Tomorrow

Representatives of Eight Clubs to Meet at Jefferson Hotel.

Representatives of the American League baseball clubs will gather at the Jefferson Hotel tomorrow to go through the formality of ratifying the schedule for 1925 which the League Schedule Committee has prepared. Business Manager Ed Barrows and Manager Miller Huggins of the New York Yankees were the first to arrive. The other club owners or their representatives will arrive this evening and tomorrow morning. It is not known whether Ban Johnson will attend.

Walter Fritsch and S. L. Swarts, vice presidents of the St. Louis American League club, will represent Phil Ball, owner of the Browns. At the advice of physicians, Ball who is convalescing at St. John's hospital, will not attend the meeting, but contact with the men who gave Ban Johnson "the pitch" cause high blood pressure. Tomorrow's meeting is purely a formal one. As a matter of courtesy

Paavo Nurmi to Run in 17 Meets In Next 32 Days

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Paavo Nurmi, the great Finnish record holder, will run in 17 meets in the next 32 days, according to an announcement made yesterday. This is an average of better than a meet every other day. The phantom Finn will start on this schedule tonight, when he attempts to establish a new 3000 yards record.

Nurmi's present schedule will finish March 12, when he competes in the Greek-American games in this city.

During this strenuous campaign Nurmi will run every distance in the middle division against the best runners in America and Canada.

In the same time; Ugo Frigerio, Italian walker, will compete in six meets.

each club will be represented but the ratification of the schedule will be the only business to transact. Incidentally it will be the first gathering of American League representatives since the joint major league meeting in Chicago, when the American League owners voted to clip Johnson's wings and make it easier for Commissioner Landis.

New Champions in City Pin Tourney

Rohrbach and Becker Capture Doubles, With Niederbrenner Winning Singles.

The annual city scratch bowling tournament came to a close on the Washington alleys yesterday, with new champions in each of the divisions. The new champions for the scratch competition are as follows:

Five-man event—Armbrusters, Washington Scratch League, 2975.

Two-man event—J. Rohrbach and F. Becker, 1238.

Individuals—F. Niederbrenner, 658.

All-events—C. Adney, 1902.

In the final bowling yesterday, all of the leaders held their places. The best score in the doubles was turned in by John Jabby and John Bierman, with a total of 1237. Jabby totaled 624 and his partner 604. This was the only 1200 count of the day. W. J. J. and C. Hartman came next with 1187. Five tenpins went 600 or better in the singles. They were Jack Berensford 624, George Metzler 607, A. Snelson 607, F. Langbein 607 and Fred Hager 606.

The Spirit of Service and Good- will

President Dubois of the Western Electric Company recently addressed 40,000 employees of his Company by radio as follows:

"Today we work in larger groups than our forefathers, because no one person and no small group can design and make and assemble and test and finally sell our finished product—the product which makes neighbors of a hundred million of our fellow citizens.

"In the great scheme of modern life, you and I are doing our full part. We are not parasites nor slackers. We are useful people. That alone makes our lives worth while.

"And because the work of each of us depends upon the skill and faithfulness of others, none of us can be sufficient to himself."

The words of President Dubois might have been chosen specifically to apply to the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

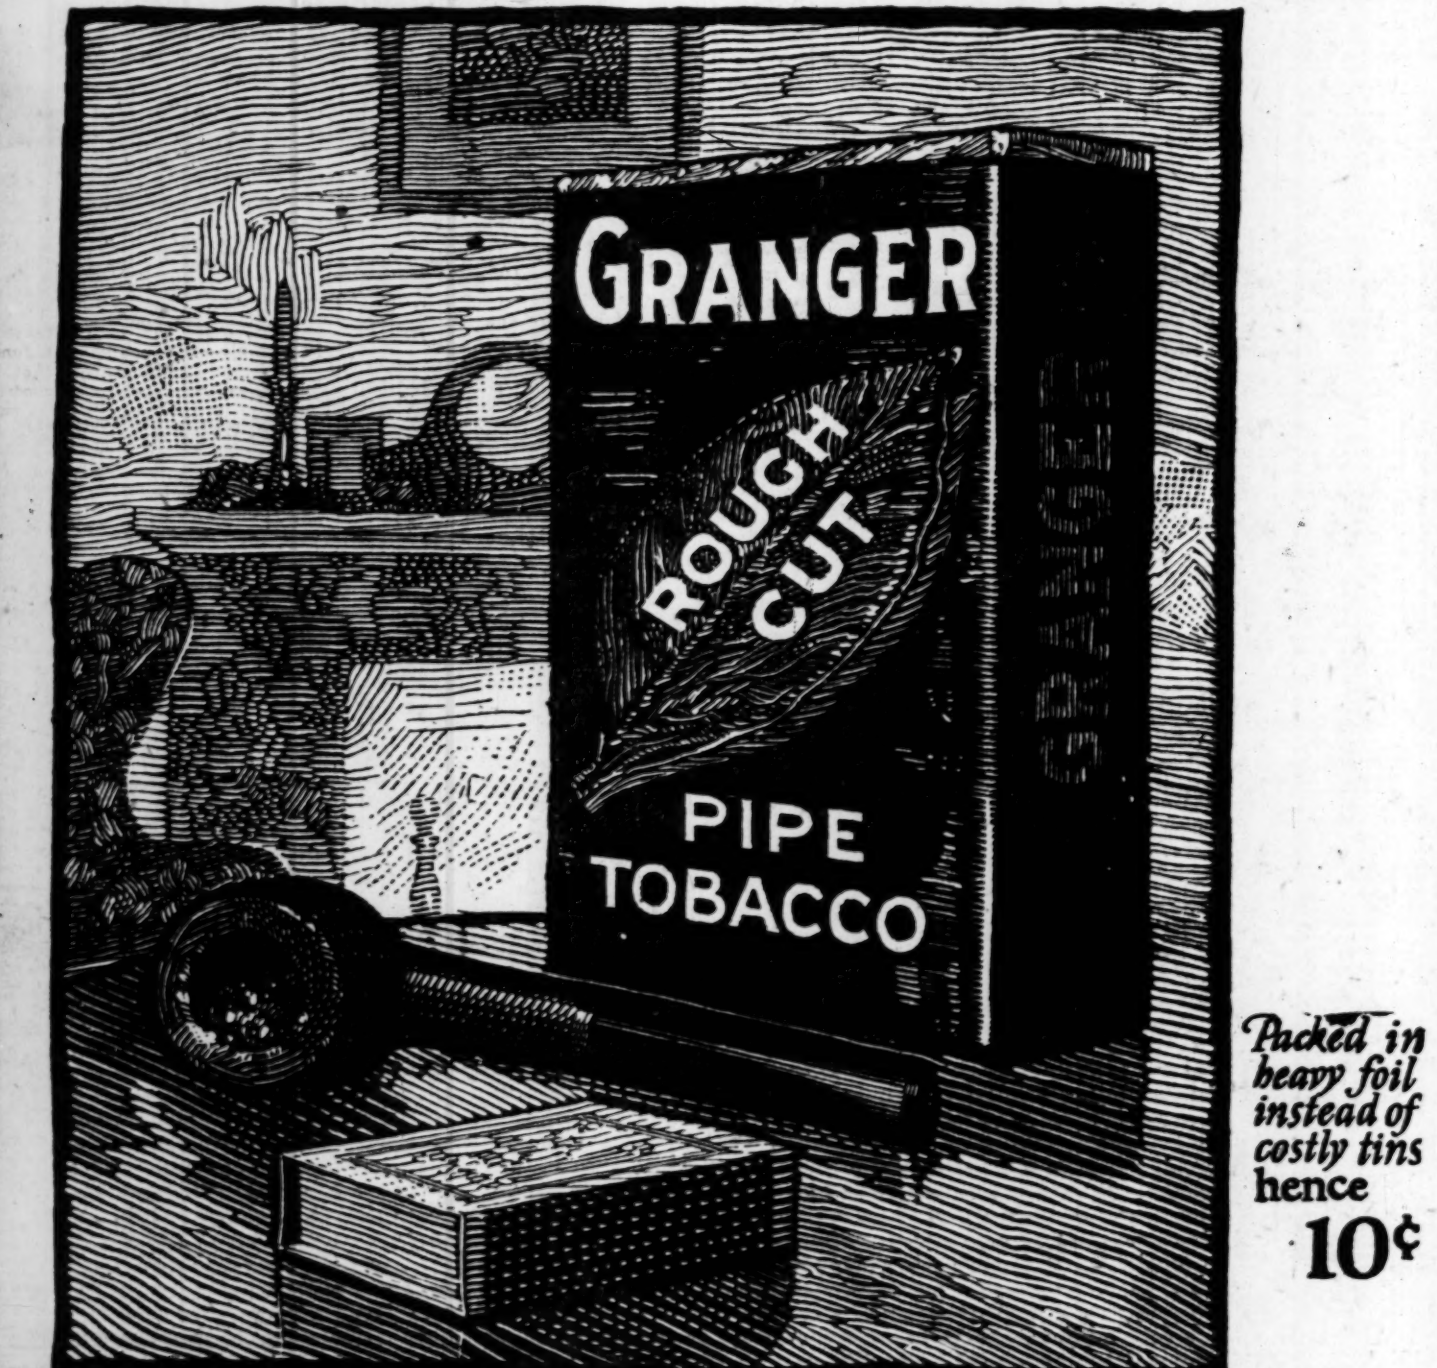

This Company is organized into a big group, because no small group can handle the business of oil products on the vast scale which is required by our complex civilization.

Only a large oil company can produce and distribute gasoline and lubricating oils which penetrate to the most remote parts of the Middle West in such a way as to make possible the circulation of the millions of automobiles.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is an essential part of the great scheme of modern life. Its experienced and trained personnel is of incalculable value to the community. The spirit of service and good-will which inspires every employee from the executive to the man at the furthest flung service station, is an important asset to society.

And because the service of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is performed with enthusiasm, energy and efficiency, the wheels of hundreds of other industries are kept running productively to serve the nation as a whole. For this Company is an essential cog in the machinery of civilization.

Its coolness and mellow "body" are a revelation to pipe smokers

Back about 1870, James N. Wellman developed a secret tobacco process which won instant and widespread favor. It yielded a fuller-bodied richness, mildness and fragrance which just seemed to "go" with a pipe. No one else ever knew his secret until we acquired "Wellman's Method" and by its means made "Granger Rough Cut"

MOOS—A sharp fall-off in hog prices resulted in a sharp upturn in hog prices in 1960, which compares with 21,600 head. With 1960 prices at 10¢ per pound, a total of 168,000 hogs today could be marketed for the same price. The spring arrived early and trading was off and on, but the hog market generally was better than the meat prospects and the big packers the most aggressive. The big packers were running for heavy and better weight hogs but very limited on light and medium weight hogs. The 120 pound and up were mainly western and good quality. The 100 pound and under were largely low before noon. Prices were largely $11.00 to $11.15 with a few $11.20. The 100 pound and under were 170 to 180 pounds were also in good demand and medium weight hogs were scarce as the heavier weights. Clearing prices of $11.00 to $11.15. The big packers were inclined to be conservative and refused to pay early market, but the limited supply forced them to pay 10¢ per pound for heavy weight hogs. The 100 pound and under were 170 to 180 pounds were also in good demand and medium weight hogs were scarce as the heavier weights. Clearing prices of $11.00 to $11.15.

was unsatisfactory. While the supply was not heavy, yet the offering carried off a sprinkling of stock, under 150 pounds and demand was slow from the east. Most of the trade in pigs and lighters was around a quarter lower than last with spots showing over $200. Good quality hogs, around 1500 pounds moved from $104 to 10 75, with 1200 pound good country hogs, around $120. Under 120 pounds it was an uneven market, with 50 pound hogs selling at $10 50. The Southwest offering reflected the Northwest offering, with 100 pound hogs selling at $10 50. Higher sales ranging mainly between $10 50 and $11 00.

RECAP:—Hardly enough sheep and hogs were offered locally today to establish a firm quality basis. Around 1500 head, but too big and of the supply concentrated in the cheap $10 50 range. Receipts of sheep and lambs at 11.00, with 1000 head of lambs selling at $4.00, against 71,000 last March. Local market for sheep was not too full of indifferent quality. Not a few good sheep were on sale. It was somewhat ready to move at $10 50. Good range bands. Some native sheep sold at $10 50.

Cattle are largely seasonal, with 100 to 1500 prime lambs quoted at $17 00 to $18 00. Some $19 00. Prime $19 00. Down to medium at $14 00 to 15. Ropes from $3 00 to $4 00. Some steers were available at $10 50 to $11 00. Some $12 00. Some $13 00. Some $14 00. Some $15 00. Some $16 00. Some $17 00. Some $18 00. Some $19 00. Some $20 00. Some $21 00. Maybe your teeth are gloriously clear, simply clouded with a film coat. Make this remarkable test and find out.

Gleaming, Glorious Teeth

Gums like coral to contrast them

Do you seriously seek the charm they bring? Then please accept this remarkable dental test. See the marked difference 10 days will make. It's simply a stubborn film on your teeth which ordinary ways fail to remove, and which this NEW way overcomes safely—scientifically.

DULL teeth, "off-color" teeth: gums that are softening, lack firmness — modern science has made important, new discoveries in overcoming them.

Now, in as little as ten days you can work a transformation in your mouth, can add immeasurably to your appearance and attractiveness.

This offers you a test without charge — the most remarkable, according to dental authorities, of all dental tests. In fairness to yourself, send the coupon.

FILM—your enemy. How it invites tooth and gum troubles

Dental science now traces scores of tooth and gum troubles, directly or indirectly, to a germ-laden film that forms on your teeth.

You can't see it with your eyes, but run your tongue across your teeth and you will feel it... a slippery, viscous coating.

That film absorbs discolorations from food, smoking, etc. And that is why your teeth look "off color" and dingy.

It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It lays your gums open to bacterial attack. Germs by the millions breed in it. And they, with tartar, are a chief cause of pyorrhea and decay.

Send the coupon. Clip it now before you forget.

You can't have pretty teeth, unless you combat it. Highest authorities all tell you this.

Brushing won't end it

Ordinary dentifrices and cleansing won't fight film successfully. Feel for it now with your tongue. Note how your present cleansing method is failing in its duty.

Now new methods are being used. A dentifrice called Pepsodent — different in formula, action and effect from any other known.

Largely on dental advice the world has turned to it. Tooth and gum troubles hence are on the decline.

It removes that film. And Firms the Gums It accomplishes two important things at once: Removes that film, then firms the gums. No harsh grit, judged dangerous to enamel.

A few days' use will prove its power beyond all doubt. Why cling to old methods when world's authorities urge a better way?

PRE-ELECTION PLEDGE ON CABINET POST

Naming of Agriculture Secretary Satisfactory to West Said to Have Been Promised.

Post-Dispatch Bureau,
20-23 Wyatt Building.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5. — Announcement is made here that Midwestern agricultural interests have a pledge from the administration to appoint a Secretary of Agriculture satisfactory to them.

The pledge, it is claimed, was made to the Republicans of Iowa during the campaign and these forces expect the pledge will be made good.

This admission comes following announcement that Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, has been offered the place and information from Chicago that Eugene Funk of Bloomington, Ill., associated with Hoover during the war, is the latest man under consideration by the President for the place.

The Midwestern group, which is fighting the program of farm relief recommended by the President's agricultural commission, makes no concealment of the fact that neither Hoover nor anyone who may be regarded as Hoover's candidate will be satisfactory.

Pledge by Telephone. The pledge to name a Secretary of Agriculture satisfactory to the Middle West farmers, it is claimed, was made over the telephone to State Chairman Burnquist of Iowa during the campaign. Immediately after the death of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

It was at the time when it was feared La Follette might carry the State, Iowa farm organizations fearing that a Massachusetts man was under consideration, served notice on the Republican leaders that if this were done, "Iowa would go for La Follette by 15,000."

Chairman Burnquist first called up Chairman Butler of the Republican National Committee at Chicago. Former United States Senator Rawson, now Iowa Republican national committeeman, was in Butler's office, it is said, when the call was received. It was a hurry-up message and Burnquist was switched to the White House where the pledge is said to have been made.

C. R. Hearst Made Demand.

The demand, which had been made through Charles E. Hearst, president of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation, executive committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation, was that a man be named who would carry out the policies inaugurated by Secretary Wallace, who would interpret the Grain Futures Trading Act and the Packers Control Act in the spirit in which they were written, and who would be satisfactory to midwestern agriculture.

Chairman Burnquist, it is claimed, was told that all of these conditions would be met. Instead, much as Secretary Wallace was committed to the passage of the McNary-Haugen bill, sponsors of the modified measure assume this means someone will be selected who will carry out the export corporation idea which now is being advocated.

Hearst, who was the moving spirit in securing the pledge, today admitted the story. Hearst is here for the purpose of advocating the modified McNary-Haugen bill.

The opposition of farm organizations to the proposed legislation as advanced by the President's agricultural commission is so firmly cemented that suggestion of the name of Eugene Funk does not meet with their approval. Funk is a grower of seeds. The objection to him on the part of midwestern farm organizations is based on the fact he is considered too close to Hoover. Rightly or wrongly, they insist that Mr. Hoover is the chief opponent of their export corporation plan.

BELLE OF 20 YEARS AGO KILLS SELF AND TWO CHILDREN

Mrs. Frances Walker Waters of Washington, D.C., Was "Tired of Being Poor."

Special to the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, Feb. 5. — A college romance that has its inception on the campus of the University of Virginia came to a final tragic chapter here today.

Friends and relatives were trying to communicate today with Dr. Dorsey Waters, an ex-captain of the Virginia football team, to tell him that Mrs. Frances Walker Waters, 42, the Charlottesville belle he married nearly 20 years ago, had killed herself and their two children, Mary, 16, and Lindsay, 14. Their bodies were found here in a gas-filled apartment. Dr. Waters is said to be in Germantown, Pa.

Mrs. Waters was divorced eight years ago. She was a granddaughter of the late Judge Roger Pryor of New York and Virginia and was a girlhood playmate of Lady Astor. She left several farewell letters, one of which, addressed to her sister, Mrs. Samuel Zimmer of Petersburg, Va., and Mrs. James Hay Jr. of Washington, stated she was tired of being unhappy and struggling and being poor.

"It's far better than anything else I've ever done," was the tragic last line, reminiscent of Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities."

INSTALLMENT NINE

WULLY was wide awake, waiting for the last prayer. There was no time to be lost, when the petitions were so short. He turned his head and there—oh, Christie was looking at him! With head bowed, but eyes wide open, she was looking at him! Hungrily, tenderly, pitifully, just as he wanted her to look! Their eyes met, and her face blossomed red. She turned her head hastily away. Let her turn away! Let her pray! He knew, now! That was enough! For some reason she didn't mean him to understand. But he had found out! It was all right. He could wait. He could wait any length of time, if only she would look at him again in that way! The congregation had risen, and had begun the Psalm. He would tell her, then and there, how glad he was, how he understood! He lifted up his voice and sang, sang louder than anyone else. That was what Allen used to do, when the service particularly bored him. He would sing the Psalm louder and clearer than the whole congregation, with the face of an earnest, humble angel, while his elders admired, and his contemporaries hid their amusement as best they might. Christie would know Wully was sending her a joyous, patient answer. What did it matter that in going out she never once would turn towards him? Perhaps that was the way of women. They don't just tell all that is in their hearts. It was all very well. He knew what she was thinking.

After dinner, he said he was going down to the swimming hole, where the assembly of cousins proved week by week that the heat had prevailed over the shorter catechism. But instead he rushed eagerly and cautiously over to Christie. He knew there might be someone with her on Sunday, and he left his horse some distance away, intending, if he saw others there, to come back and wait. There was not a sound to be heard as he crept up, though he stopped, listening. He hesitated, and drew nearer. Then he saw her. She was sitting in the little plot of shade the cabin made, on the doorstep, and her head was bowed on her arms. On a bit of rag carpet on the ground, her little sister was sleeping. Christie didn't hear him. He went cautiously nearer, not wanting to startle her. He stood still, scarcely knowing how to be the least unwelcome. What was this he saw? What was this? She was crying! He stood still, watching her carefully. She was shaken with sobbing.

His impulse was to run and take her in his arms, but he knew now that he must be careful. You can't be impetuous, it seeps with women, at least not with that one. He had tried that once, and learned his lesson. He slipped behind the barn, and stood wondering what to do. After a few seconds he peered around cautiously. There she sat, crying shakily. He tried vainly to imagine a reason. Perhaps her uncle was complaining of having the responsibility of her and the children alone there. Perhaps she was actually in want, perhaps in want of food. Perhaps the other girls had been talking about going away to school, and she was heartbroken because her mother's plans for her education were not to be carried out. Maybe she had just seen a snake. He remembered his mother saying that after Jeannie McNeil had had to kill a snake, she used to sit down and cry. Some women did things like that, he knew, not his mother and sisters, but some. He peered around at her again, most uncomfortable. Her sobbing was terrible to see. He felt like a spy. He remained from going to her because something warned him that if she had not welcomed him before, she was less likely to do so now, when her face would be started with tears. But he remembered that prayer book with her long longing.

He stood hesitating. Presently he looked again. She was just lifting her head to wipe her nose, and he saw him. She gave a little cry and, jumping up, ran into the cabin and slammed the door behind her. As if he were a robber! Then she came out, even more hesitatingly, more afraid, and caught up the sleeping baby, and carried her away to safety. She didn't barricade the house against him, need she? Wully thought, angrily. Then he remembered her face in church. He would sit, sitting inside the door, and in her hands she had her father's old gun!

How preposterous! If she didn't want him as a lover, she might at least remember he was Wully McLaughlin, a decent, harmless man! Waiting for him with a gun! Could it be that the girl was losing her mind? Her mother had never recovered from that shock of hers. If Christie had been unbalanced by her mother's death! He wouldn't think it! That would be diabolical. But somebody, his mother, their aunt, somebody ought to go to her by force, and get her away from this lonely place. Who could tell what a girl might do with a gun! One thing he knew, he wasn't going alone and leave her there alone, so badly armed and weeping. After a while Dod came home, a red-faced, sweating little lad, and sat down contentedly with the soldier in the shade of the barn. He was, of course, barefooted and clothed in jeans, and his rifle he cut did not count for Christie's skill as a barber. Surely he must know what she was crying about. And he would know that Wully

WATCH THE FLARE IN NEWER SKIRTS

For Grace and to Give Greater Freedom of Movement the New Style Will Be Eagerly Welcomed.

By MARGERY WELLS

THERE'S a swing to the newer skirts that has not been there in some ages past—ages in the sense that dressmaking is concerned. You look at a dress which has every appearance of being the old-time, old-style, one-piece affair. Then, gradually the change in its skirt line creeps upon you.

"Why," you will say, "there is the flare back from the '20s!" It is not quite so bad as that, for most of the flares are made with circular shapings. They fall, ever so simply, in straight and perfect lines, but they have that give and spread which shows most decidedly when one walks about in them. Notice, for instance, the dress in the picture that is all black except the stripe of white down the center of the front. At first view that seems as straight as a dress can be, and then you see the circular section on the side, which, of course, is repeated on the other side. You see, they are doing this sort of inset instead of the pleated look.

There seems every reason to believe that by spring all of the dresses on the street and elsewhere will approach the knee line. It is an inevitable state of affairs for Paris decrees the fashion as much as a year ago. Now dresses in the mass are coming into the fashion which was set by those authorities so long ago.

Again on the black dress in the picture, for this is a very smart model and indicative of the general character of the new silhouette, you will see the little folded over-collar that fastens under the chin. Not every dress can stand this line, alas, but those that can are gloriously in the new line and the chicness that it carries along with it.

A bit of embroidery to finish off the collar, or a layer of transparent lace, or a covering of line on simply hemstitched—these are the extra adornments which these collars carry along with them. Then there are little, turnback, tightly fastened cuffs to match and these sets alone manage to give to the new dresses an air of swiftness and grace.

and refinement which every girl likes to possess. Women have been too long without their white bits around collar and cuffs and now that they have a chance they are taking them up again with the greatest enthusiasm. Plaids and stripes have been talked about for some time, but this season they are really and actually coming into their own. It is possible that so many materials in these patterns that embody interesting colors and tones that one can hardly resist the temptation of having at least one of these brilliant designs in one's wardrobe for spring. Then, especially with the flaring skirt, the plaids cut to advantage as do the stripes under some specialized conditions. The interesting effects that can be gained by the placing of plaids in certain juxtapositions are the salient features of many a modern frock. When this placing is cleverly handled then the amount of trimming needed to finish off a gown is generally but an infinitesimal binding or a braid about the edge or a ribbon to tie the collar together or something so small as any of these touches. The material, so long as it is a pattern, is the thing and the girl who carries that idea firmly fixed in her mind stands no chance of making a mistake when she is choosing dresses made of plaids or stripes.

Make Hem Short With a Flare. There is a plaid frock in the picture which pleasantly illustrates this new vogue. It is not at all a sport model as so many of the patterned ones have been in the past. It is rather more of a dress affair, being good for afternoon or luncheon or a daytime bridge party or something of that sort. It has only a few buttons and a ribbon swinging from the collar to make it notable in the way of trimming. But these touches are all that it could stand and still manage to keep its style along with the pattern that makes the material.

This dress carries out the flare in the skirt which, however, is provided with a tighter underskirt and, again, the cuffs are made on flaring lines to repeat, in a small way, the character of the established design.

Then make your skirts short and make them flaring and you will be right in the best of style for the coming months. We can hold out no promises about the length of the new dresses as yet.

SAYINGS OF MRS. SOLOMON

By HELEN ROWLAND

INTOLERABLE CRUELTY.

VERY, my daughter, for divorce there are many grounds; but of them all, the most popular is that which the Judge calleth "intolerable cruelty."

For, what wife and what husband do not suffer therefrom, in their own hearts?

Go to! A black eye and contusion upon the head are as naught beside bruises upon the heart, the vanity and the finer sensibilities. And wherefore is it necessary that a man shall throw a cranberry pie at his wife, to let her know that she is distasteful in his sight?

Nay, Simon Legree was peradventure, sweet and tender beside a husband who tasted onion soup every day for luncheon.

And Xantippe was a gentle soul, beside a woman who commandeth her husband to arise in the middle of a Winter night and see if the radiator is turned off.

A man who demandeth hot waffles for breakfast every morning, and a woman who leaveth her hair in the comb, Who can bear them? For, they are guilty of "intolerable cruelty."

Likewise, a woman who cooketh with a can-opener, and a man who spendeth his Sunday mornings upon the golf links, and his Sunday afternoons solving cross-word puzzles.

A man who saith, "My dear, thou art too FAT to dance," and a woman who saith, "Thou hast told THAT story twice, already!"

A man who weareth his hair cut like unto a convict's and a woman who giveth her husband a green necktie for Christmas.

A man who sleepeth out loud—and a woman who telleth her husband HOW to drive the car.

A man who insisteth upon choosing his wife's hats—and a woman who maketh her husband's shirts, and useth his handkerchiefs as cold cream removers.

All these, my daughter, are exceedingly "CRUEL"; for of cruelty there are upward of fifty-seven varieties.

Go to! Hath not many a woman forgiven her husband for forgery, because he hath not forgotten to place a kiss upon her lips, when he placed an evening wrap upon her shoulders?

Yea, verily, for a wife is the trifles that bind a husband and wife together, and likewise the trifles that drive them apart.

And a big vice may be borne with bravely; but an hundred little vices are as drops of aloes, which fill the heart with bitterness.

Therefore, is "Cruelty" a woman's favorite complex, and a man's best alibi, at the parting of the ways.

WHAT I FOUND IN EUROPE

By Jackie Coogan.

(AS TOLD TO ZOE BECKLEY)

ON the afternoon of Friday, Oct. 6, they held a reception for me at the Parthenon on the Acropolis, Athens, Greece, at which I was presented with the decoration of the Silver Cross of St. George. There it is in just plain words, like the news-stories folks write for the papers.

But, those words don't give you any more idea of that party than if I was to say, "Hollywood is a pretty place with lots of sunshine," and expect you to know from that what Hollywood is really like.

Picture this: The high rocky hill above the city which they call the Acropolis, with a temple on it (the Parthenon, built in the Fourth Century, B. C. if you can think back that far. Picture this hill and all the roads leading to it jammed solid with people all the way. The authorities? Ah, they declared it a legal holiday, and never in my life have I seen such crowds. People told us that in all history never had so many people been crowded on that hill before. And all because I had been able to bring the orphan children back from America! The supplies we brought are valued at more than a million dollars and a million dollars is a good deal more than a million dollars in their money.

Daddy says it might go two or three times as far. After I saw how thankful they were, and how they needed that help, I was sorry it wasn't ten millions instead of only a million and a quarter or so. It was from thankfulness they gave me the beautiful medal of St. George. Next to the medal the Pope gave me. I think I love it more than anything else I have except maybe Olga and Butzi and their 10 puppies. But of course you feel different about a dog than you do about a medal.

It took us a whole hour to get from our hotel, through the roads to the Acropolis, and we had our fenders smashed again. Greek crowds are very hard on fenders.

It took us nearly two hours to get back to the hotel from the reception on the Acropolis. The crowd yelled, "Zito! Zito!" which means Hooray. They kicked up a lot of dust too, and by the time we got home we were darker in complexion than any of the Greek soldiers.

Oh, Boy! Everywhere we went they started it up and I had to stand with my hand at salute for about half an hour at a time and as soon as one band got through another piped up. I was willing to do that much for my country all right, but once when we had a pretty wild day and I was just tumbling into bed, dead tired, a man in the street pulled a cornet out of a bag and started to blow the Star-Spangled Banner under my window. I had to put on a bathrobe and go out and salute—and say, that time I almost quit being patriotic!

Life of this style, but at any rate it will last longer than a six month dress and by the end of that time your dress may have gone the way of all dresses and been added to a rummage sale.

Dance dresses, there is hardly any use saying, are most lovely when they incorporate in their design the flaring skirt. They are as graceful as can be when one is on the floor and all the girls who have tried them have found them generally satisfactory.

I shall have more to say later on the subject of gathered skirts—plain and straight, but made on lines that are ample and full.

BE BRIEF IN WRITING

By Sophie Irene Loebe

LETTERS—long letters, pages and pages of them. Why do they do it, and why do they let them? They send letters like this to people in this day when every nothing to do but write letters, and I wouldn't wonder, then, but they expect to answer them in kind. When send a lengthy one to me, I think I have lost my mind, and am careless about friendship.

"The truth is that I want a whole lot more about them, they would be more interesting, the letters are so talk and gossip. There are, of course, but when of them I groan, knowing have to wade through a der to get the one or two exciting items they contain. The point is well made, times a long communique many pages, can be a few paragraphs and a friendship and love can be put into one or two paragraphs. It often happens very short, concise letters of a few words, bringing news and joy and surprise weight than the voluminous ones.

For example, if you write a letter to me, say I love you and tell me of you, and hoping to hear from you, probably there will be a heart much more than a page of closely written ramble along.

And, again, the simple of you conveys more in dear to you than what is written on endless newspaper.

In most of these epistles usually find just one or two letters that mean something, balance is just what we need, and why waste so much writing them? You are imposing a task on me, some one who has many things to do.

Writing briefly is the plan of the day. In writing busy persons, especially engaged in public work, it is important to make the most to-the-point as you can, possible, in type. It is easier for one who has many letters to read to have a matter which he can get quickly. Not only the matter matters, but the energy to be devoted to the task.

In short, the whole save the patience of those have to carry more than others than others. For to write all my letters is very rarely, indeed, that cause even a close friend own family, to labor with my handwriting. If I communicate with them, I would certainly try to messages as short as possible.

Judging by the pre-primaries promises the spring election promises well.

In fact we might say without fear of contradiction that there are quite a number of promising candidates in the field.

The Mayor is said to be ambitious to emulate the record of the Browns and Giants and be a four-time winner. It's a tough grade, mates.

MR. BYSS: I WISH TO ASCERTAIN THE NAME OF THAT LOVELY CREATURE I SAW BY THE ROADSIDE THE OTHER DAY. I SENT MY CHAUFFEUR TO ASK HER, BUT SHE ONLY CALLED HIM A "CRAZY CAT." WILL YOU TRY IT?

WILL TRY, SIR IF IT PLEASES YOU, SIR. YES, SIR.

COULD I BE SO BOLD AS TO ASK YOUR NAME?

SURE, "KRAZY KAT."

WELL?

I TOO, WAS CALLED A "CRAZY CAT," SIR.

INQUIRY PUT UP TO HOUSE

Judiciary Body Asks for Authority After Approv-

MUST PASS BILL

Sum of $5000 Sought for Carrying on Investigation During Summer Recess of Congress.

A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The House Judiciary Committee voted unanimously today to investigate the official conduct of Federal Judge George W. English of East St. Louis, to determine whether he shall be impeached. Chairman Graham of Pennsylvania immediately introduced in the House a joint resolution empowering the investigating committee to hold hearings throughout the summer recess, and a second resolution appropriating $5000 to carry on the investigation.

The joint resolution must be passed by the Senate and signed by the President before it becomes effective. In effect, it is a new resolution appropriating funds needs only to pass the House.

Joint Resolution Decided On.
The full Judiciary Committee received the report of the subcommittee which made a preliminary inquiry to determine whether an investigation was warranted, and which voted unanimously last Saturday to recommend an extensive inquiry. The recommendation was adopted without a dissenting vote, and the committee then discussed methods of prolonging the investigation into the summer recess.

It decided upon a joint resolution to be passed by the House and Senate and signed by the President, by which subcommittee No. 2 would be authorized to act as a special committee until the beginning of the next Congress, in addition, to which the special committee would make its report.

The joint resolution was drafted by Chairman Graham immediately after the meeting, and was introduced by him a few minutes after the House convened at noon. It confers full powers for the summer recess of the committee, the production of records, its text is as follows:

"Whereas, Certain charges against George W. English, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Illinois, have been transmitted by the Speaker of the House of Representatives to the Committee on Judiciary, be it Resolved, That William D. Board, Charles A. Christopher, Earl C. Michener, Ira G. Harney, Patton W. Sumners, John N. Tillman and Royal W. Weller, members of subcommittee No. 2 of the Committee on Judiciary, be and they hereby are authorized and directed to inquire into the official conduct of George W. English, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Illinois, and to report to the House whether in their opinion the said George W. English has been guilty of any act which in contemplation of the Constitution are high crimes and misdemeanors, requiring the interposition of the constitutional powers of this House and that the said special committee have power to send for persons and papers, to administer oaths to witnesses, all processes to be signed by the Clerk of the House of Representatives under its seal, and be served by the Sergeant at Arms of the House or his special messenger, to sit during the sessions of the Sixty-eighth (present) Congress and until said inquiry is completed, and to report to the Sixty-ninth (next) Congress."

$5000 Appropriation Sought.
Chairman Graham also prepared a separate House resolution asking for an appropriation of $5000 to carry on the investigation. Unlike the main resolution, this one requires action only by the House. Chairman Graham said he would move the adoption of both from the floor during the afternoon if the opportunity offered.

The special committee is expected to proceed to East St. Louis and hold hearings as soon as Congress convenes on March 4. Its members are identical with that of the subcommittee which held the preliminary inquiry.
